Background on the Gospel Reading

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: “Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?” This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

decimonovena Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Ciclo C 10 de agosto

Antecedentes de la lectura del Evangelio

Las instrucciones de Jesús sobre cómo estar preparados para el juicio venidero continúan en las historias y dichos que se encuentran en el Evangelio de hoy. No debemos ser como el avaro rico del Evangelio del domingo pasado, que planeó almacenar su gran cosecha en graneros en lugar de compartirla. Más bien, debemos compartir nuestra riqueza con aquellos que lo necesitan. El antídoto para la ansiedad provocada por el juicio venidero es renunciar a nuestras posesiones y proporcionar para las necesidades de los demás. Nuestro tesoro estará en el cielo, donde no se desgastará ni será destruido.

La otra forma principal de estar listos para el juicio venidero es estar atentos. En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús cuenta una parábola sobre la vigilancia para comenzar a hacer este punto. Debemos ser como los siervos que esperan el regreso del amo de un banquete de bodas, que, incluso ahora, puede durar unos días en el Medio Oriente. Debemos estar atentos para que, incluso si el amo llega después de medianoche, estemos listos para él. Así será la venida del Hijo del Hombre.

Pedro pregunta si esta parábola está destinada a los apóstoles o a la gran multitud que se ha reunido para escuchar a Jesús. Sin responder a la pregunta de Pedro, Jesús responde con otra parábola sobre los sirvientes que esperan el regreso de su maestro. Comienza con una pregunta: “¿Quién, entonces, es el mayordomo fiel y prudente a quien el maestro pondrá a cargo de sus sirvientes para distribuir la ración de comida a su debido tiempo?” Esta parábola añade al tema de la vigilancia; explica cómo esperar y nos recuerda la recompensa para el fiel seguidor en el banquete celestial después del juicio. Si está dirigida a los apóstoles, entonces también podría dirigirse al liderazgo en la Iglesia primitiva. De cualquier manera, las parábolas nos recuerdan que debemos ser encontrados haciendo nuestro trabajo cuando llegue el maestro. Si estamos haciendo nuestro trabajo, nuestra recompensa será grande. Pero si nos relajamos, descuidamos nuestras obligaciones y comenzamos a actuar como el codicioso hombre rico—comiendo, bebiendo y festejando—no tendremos un lugar en el reino. La vigilancia significa vivir de tal manera moral y obediente que siempre estemos listos para rendir cuentas a Dios sobre cómo hemos vivido.

Pope Leo's Prayer Intention for August

For mutual coexistence.

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons.
