Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we hear about how Jesus, continuing on his journey to Jerusalem, heals 10 lepers. This story is a lesson about faith and reminds us that faith is sometimes found in unlikely places. Ten people afflicted with leprosy cry out to Jesus. Struck with pity, Jesus heals all 10. However, only one is described as glorifying God and returning to thank Jesus. The one who returns is a Samaritan, a foreigner. In the Jewish circles in which Jesus lived, Samaritans were looked down upon because of the differences between the two communities in their observance of Judaism. It is significant, therefore, that Jesus commends the Samaritan for his faith, which has been his salvation. Throughout Luke's Gospel, faith is found in surprising places.

Another lesson for us in this Gospel has to do with salvation. All 10 of the lepers were given the gift of healing, but in his gratitude to God for this gift, the Samaritan found salvation. Our salvation is found in recognizing the gifts we have been given and knowing to whom we must offer our thanks.

Antecedentes de la lectura del Evangelio

Hoy escuchamos cómo Jesús, continuando su camino hacia Jerusalén, sana a 10 leprosos. Esta historia es una lección sobre la fe y nos recuerda que la fe a veces se encuentra en lugares improbables. Diez personas afectadas por la lepra claman a Jesús. Conmovido por la compasión, Jesús sana a los 10. Sin embargo, solo uno es descrito como glorificando a Dios y regresando para agradecer a Jesús. El que regresa es un samaritano, un extranjero. En los círculos judíos en los que vivía Jesús, los samaritanos eran menospreciados debido a las diferencias entre las dos comunidades en su observancia del judaísmo. Por lo tanto, es significativo que Jesús elogie al samaritano por su fe, que ha sido su salvación. A lo largo del Evangelio de Lucas, la fe se encuentra en lugares sorprendentes.

Otra lección para nosotros en este Evangelio tiene que ver con la salvación. A los 10 leprosos se les dio el don de la sanación, pero en su gratitud a Dios por este don, el samaritano encontró la salvación. Nuestra salvación se encuentra en reconocer los dones que se nos han dado y saber a quién debemos ofrecer nuestro agradecimiento.

Pope Leo XIV Prayer for October

Pope Leo XIV's prayer for the month of October is a call for Collaboration between different religious traditions. He invites believers to pray that they might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity. The prayer emphasizes the importance of recognizing what unites us and learning to listen and collaborate without destroying. It calls for religions to be lived as bridges and prophecy, making the dream of the common good credible and sustaining hope in a fragmented world. The prayer is part of a broader initiative to raise awareness of the Pope's prayer intentions and encourages Catholics to pray the Rosary Daily throughout the month.
