Background on the Gospel Reading

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.

Día de Todos los Santos Sábado, 1 de noviembre de 2025

Antecedentes sobre la lectura del Evangelio

Cada año la Iglesia recuerda el ejemplo, el testimonio y la oración de las santas mujeres y hombres que han sido identificados por la Iglesia como santos. Estos santos son más que modelos a seguir; son miembros de la familia con los que seguimos compartiendo relación, en un vínculo de oración, llamado la Comunión de los Santos. Cada año, cuando celebramos este día, el Evangelio que proclamamos recuerda para nosotros la enseñanza de Jesús sobre la felicidad, las Bienaventuranzas. Notamos rápidamente en esta lectura que no se espera ninguno de esos nombres de Jesús como "bendito" o "feliz"... los pobres de espíritu, los mansos, los perseguidos. El plan de Jesús para la felicidad refleja poco de lo que el mundo podría llamar felicidad.

¿Qué quiere decir Jesús cuando usa la palabra "bendito"? Esta Palabra a veces se traduce como "feliz" o "afortunado" o "favorecido". En otras palabras, Jesús está diciendo que el favor divino está sobre aquellos que son pobres, que lloran, que son perseguidos. Esta podría haber sido una noticia bienvenida y sorprendente para las multitudes que escucharon a Jesús ese día.

Las Bienaventuranzas pueden entenderse como un marco para la vida cristiana. Debido a esto, es natural que proclamemos Este Evangelio en a Fiesta de Todos los Santos. Los santos son personas que vivieron el espíritu de las Bienaventuranzas como vivió Jesús. En este día, nosotros también estamos desafiados A modelar nuestras vidas en el espíritu y las promesas de las Bienaventuranzas.

Pope Leo XIV Prayer for October

Pope Leo XIV's prayer for the month of October is a call for Collaboration between different religious traditions. He invites believers to pray that they might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity. The prayer emphasizes the importance of recognizing what unites us and learning to listen and collaborate without destroying. It calls for religions to be lived as bridges and prophecy, making the dream of the common good credible and sustaining hope in a fragmented world. The prayer is part of a broader initiative to raise awareness of the Pope's prayer intentions and encourages Catholics to pray the Rosary Daily throughout the month.
