INTRODUCTION OF ST. NICHOLAS PARISH STAFF MEMBERS

We continue in our series of staff introductions, so that you may become familiar with the names, faces, job titles and responsibilities of the St. Nicholas staff. They are compensated by your generous donations and they are here to serve you. Feel free to reach out to them for any needs you might have.

Alfonso J. Lopez School of Religion Elementary Coordinator and Confirmation 1

Hello, my name is Alfonso J. Lopez. I've been a member of St. Nicholas Parish since 1970. My parents, Juan and Juanita Lopez, migrated to "El Toro" California from Mexico City and raised a family of 8 kids in the Saddleback Valley. I have seen so many changes in SoCal and how it has transformed into a vibrant community. Me and all of my siblings have benefited greatly from the St. Nicholas Parish Catechism program offered to us as children. I am blessed to have been married at St. Nicholas Church to my lovely bride, Royette Anne, who is originally from the Philippines. She has been a godsent in many ways and a blessing in my life. I became involved as a volunteer, teaching the Faith to students since 2001. This opportunity came by invitation from DRE, Gwen Weiser. My journey as a Catechist continues to grow, thanks to the challenging questions students ask and the richness of our Catholic Faith. I am committed to assisting and enriching the domestic Church life through the teaching of Sacraments, participation in the Liturgy, adoration prayer for the students and service to the St. Nicholas Parish families. I am also an active member of the Knights of Columbus, Council 10590.

I have been part of the St. Nicholas staff since November 2015 specifically in the School of Religious Education. It is a pleasure coordinating, facilitating and serving our volunteer catechists as they prepare their classroom lessons. Being bilingual, I am able to connect families to vital resources both spiritually and emotionally. I am humbled they would trust me in family matters.

Every Summer, we offer the students Vacation Bible School for one week. Initially the students are shy and reluctant but, by the second day they are singing, laughing and learning about the love of Jesus. What a blessing when the students ask if this event will continue. To inspire the minds and hearts of our students is a joy and a blessing, a responsibility humbly taken. Thank you for your trust. I look forward to being of service to families in the faith formation of students and faith enrichment to the parish. All glory to Christ Jesus Our Lord!

Next weekend there will be a second collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious.

Thank you for your generosity.

Artworks from the Holy Land

Next weekend we have representatives from the Holy Land with us selling handmade olive carvings to help support Catholic families living in Jerusalem. The mission of this organization is to help support and keep a Catholic presence in the Holy Land. All the profit made will go directly back to those families. So, we ask to please stop by their display to help support their organization. Thank you and God Bless.

THANK YOU FROM THE ST. NICHOLAS SEWING GROUP!

Thank you to the many St. Nicholas Parishioners who made our recent "Holiday Boutique" the most successful ever!

This event is not possible without the talents of the St. Nicholas Sewing Group, meeting weekly, the many volunteers that worked at the event from set up to closing, the St. Nicholas Facilities Management team who set up the Parish Center, and our Priests and parish Staff, who promoted our event.

Between now and Christmas, the Sewing Group will donate the majority of the unsold handmade items to the many charities that we support year round:

- Children's clothing items to Orangewood Youth and Family Center.
- Baby items to Life Center of Santa Ana.
- Knitted caps/scarves to Covenant House for homeless teens.
- Baby items to the pregnant wives of the Darkhorse 3/5 Marine Battalion.
- Lapghans to our Veterans at the VA Hospital.

The Sewing Group also greatly appreciates those that made generous donations to help support our ministry. We remain grateful to parishioners who donate fabric, yarn and sewing notions throughout the year, which allows us to continue our mission to assist the needy in the county. THANK YOU!

As an Advent preparation, we will have an evening of Prayer for Unity, Peace and Vocations with a multi-lingual program presented by the Unity Group on Wednesday, December 6th at 7:00 PM. Light refreshments will be served after the service.
