SUNDAY REFLECTION October 2, 2022

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4; Psalm 95:1-2, 6-9
2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14; Luke 17:5-10

Because of his faith, the just man shall live. We hear in today's First Reading the original prophetic line made so central by St. Paul. We are to live by faith in Christ who loved us and gave Himself on the Cross for us.

The world, though, can seem to us as seventh-century Judah seemed to Habakkuk—in the control of God's enemies. The strife and discord we face in our own lives can sometimes cause us to wonder, as the prophet does, why God doesn't seem to hear or intervene when we cry for help.

We can't let our hearts be hardened by the trials we undergo. As today's Psalm reminds us: Israel forgot His mighty works, lost faith in the sound words of His promise. They tested God in the desert, demanding a sign.

But God didn't redeem Israel from Egypt only to let them die in the desert. And He didn't ransom us from futility only to abandon us in our trials. He is our God and we are the people He shepherds always—though at times His mercy and justice seem long delayed.

If we call on the Lord, as the Apostles do in today's Gospel, He will increase our faith, will stir to a flame the Holy Spirit who has dwelt within us since Baptism.

As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, the Lord will always give us the love and self-control we need to bear our share of hardship for the Gospel—with a strength that can come from God alone. Our task is to continue doing what He has commanded—to love and to build up His kingdom—trusting that His vision still presses on to its fulfillment.

For His vision still has its time. One day, though we are but "unprofitable servants," we will be invited to eat and drink at our Master's table. It is that day we anticipate with each celebration of the Eucharist.

Letters from Steubenville Youth:

Dear Holy Family, I have listened to some inspirational speeches, but the one that stands out the most is when David mentioned the importance of being a man. He said that a man has to provide and protect his family. Men can do things that women can't and women can do things men can't do. We have to bring together each others difference and compliment one another.

Dear Holy Family Parish, I just want to say thank you for all the support. Without it I would have never been able to go to adoration. It had such a big impact to see I was not the only one who gets insecure and needs that hour and a half to just sit and pray to God. This whole weekend has helped open my eyes to the Lord and all his greatness.

Dear Holy Family, The last three days of Steubenville have been nothing short of incredible. I particularly enjoyed our second night of Eucharistic Adoration. AS the monstrance was processed up our staircase, I was overcome by the beauty and grace of our "waymaker, miracle worker, promise keeper, and light in the darkness." Of course, the encounter I had with our Lord would not have been possible without the overwhelming support you, our family, constantly provide. Thank you is simply not enough!

Dear Holy Family, This Weekend has opened my eyes to the sense of community found in the youth of our community as well as the entire parish. I am thankful for everything this whole community has done and everybody that has made this weekend retreat possible for us to grow with each other in Christ. Thank you!!
