FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading — In a vision Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the LORD of hosts. Isaiah responds, “Send me!” (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalm — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).

Gospel — Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish. Simon and his partners leave all to follow Jesus (Luke 5:1-11).

PRAYER OF THE WEEK: Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THEOPHANIES:

Today's readings recount three theophanies, or particular manifestations of God's presence. The prophet Isaiah is caught up in a dramatic scene of heavenly worship, with a royal throne, burning embers, and seraphim singing, "Holy, holy, holy." Isaiah is overwhelmed. In the responsorial psalm, the assembly adds its own worship to that of the seraphim: "In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord" (Psalm 138:1).

Paul reminds the Corinthians of his own experience of a post-Resurrection appearance of the Lord, making him an apostle, but one "born abnormally" (1 Corinthians 15:8), since he had no acquaintance with the earthly Jesus. The first of those who did know the earthly Jesus were surprised by fishing advice from the teacher who had commandeered Simon's boat, resulting in an extraordinary catch. Although less colorful than those of Isaiah or Paul, this theophany was just as overwhelming.

YOUTH GROUP HOAGIE SALE: Our Parish is in the process of forming a Youth Group. The Youth Group is a great opportunity for our young people to come together to share their faith and have fun! To help raise funds for the Youth Group, there will be a hoagie sale. The hoagies will be from Steve & Irene's. Order forms will be given to CCD students and will be inserted in the bulletin in the near future. Thank you in advance for your support!

SONNY SAYS: Kathy watched quietly and intently as Father Smith baptized her little brother, Otto. But when the ceremony reached the pouring of the water, little Kathy became nervous, edged up to the baptismal font and exclaimed, "Wash behind his ears, too, Father."

Ideas for Couples: Celebrating National Marriage Week!

WAYS IN WHICH YOU CAN BE KIND AND LOVING TO YOUR SPOUSE

Make a point to thank your spouse for something(s) they did during the day (ex: 'thanks for unloading the dishwasher' or 'I appreciate you bringing in the mail')

Offer your husband or wife simple displays of affection throughout the day – a hug, a kiss, a gentle touch on the back or shoulder

Write a short love note for your spouse to find in their bag, or near their workspace in your home

Make (or buy/bring home already prepared) one of your spouse's favorite foods or drinks

Write a list of 5-10 appreciations for your spouse; let him/her know the ways in which he/she has added value to your life

Do nice things for your spouse: make his or her morning coffee/tea, pick up his or her dry cleaning, wash his or her car (may be even the inside and the outside!)

Give your spouse a compliment about his or her appearance or manner

Apologize. Even if you're apologizing for something that happened long ago, if you feel you were wrong, ask for forgiveness.

Make your spouse a playlist. You can include songs that have sentimental value to your relationship and/or songs that were popular when you started dating.
