THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

First Reading — Before anything was created, the wisdom of God was brought forth (Proverbs 8:22-31).

Psalm — O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth! (Psalm 8).

Second Reading — God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us (Romans 5:1-5).

Gospel — Everything that the Father has is mine; the Spirit will take from what is mine and declare it to you (John 16:12-15).

PRAYER OF THE WEEK: God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what

Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

SONNY SAYS: One of Mark Twain's bad habits was calling on neighbors without his collar or necktie. One afternoon upon his return from a neighborhood visit in the usual degree of undress, his wife scolded him for his negligence. Clemens departed to his study and in a few moments sent a small package back to the neighbor's house. An accompanying note read somewhat as follows:

"Just a little while ago I visited you minus my collar and tie. The missing articles are enclosed. Will you kindly gaze at them for 30 minutes and then return them to me?"

BAKE SALE SUCCESS! Thanks to our wonderful bakers, dedicated Stewardship Committee Members and to all who filled your sweet tooth, we collected $2,136.00 last weekend during our bake sale. Gratitude to all! (Even Sonny was happy for the doggie treats).

ALTAR SERVING NEEDED: We are looking for young people to serve at Sunday Mass – Old and new are welcome. Please talk to Fr. John if interested.

MASS INTENTIONS: Masses are available for your intentions. Please call for open dates.
