TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION: The fact that many monastic churches do not have a prominent tabernacle shapes the patterns of liturgical prayer. Monastic communities often protect the ancient value of “receiving from the same sacrifice,” meaning that the communicants are assured that what they eat and drink in the Holy Mysteries actually comes from the same celebration. It surprises many to learn that the Church does not foresee, nor does it provide for, Communion of the faithful from the reserved Sacrament. Liturgical laws have long defended your right to receive from the same sacrifice, the same Mass, that you attend.

At one time, of course, the bread for the Eucharist was the ordinary bread of the day, except unleavened, probably prepared at home. It was broken and distributed to the faithful. Early on the loaf itself was referred to as the hostia in Latin, meaning the “sacrifice,” the same word for the sacrificial animal in Jewish worship, and for Jesus as the Lamb of God. By giving his life on the cross, Jesus became the hostia for us. To this day in the Greek Church, one of the tasks of the priest’s wife is to bake the bread for the Divine Liturgy, sometimes in a bakery oven dedicated to that purpose and called a “Bethlehem.”

Today’s familiar individual hosts first appeared in the eleventh century at about the time when tabernacles were coming into use. The turn away from “bready” bread allowed the hosts to be reserved since they did not spoil like regular bread, and made the annual “Easter duty” counts easier

Congratulations to Joe and Anna Ferut who celebrate 65 years of marriage this weekend. May their love continue to grow and reflect the love of God for us.

Congratulations to the family of Lincoln Robert Quarm who was baptized last weekend. May he grow as a son of God with the support and witness of our parish community.

PASTOR'S CORNER: This weekend is affectionately called Good Shepherd Sunday. Reflecting upon the readings for this weekend is most appropriate as we await the announcement from Pope Francis concerning his selection of the next bishop of the Diocese of Cleveland. We each have different expectations of the bishop who will be leading our diocese. It is a big task to lead a large diocese like ours during the current societal treads of our day. And it is praying for someone who will be able to lead the diverse needs of our diocese and not just our own expectations. Pope Francis' reflection on how to be a good shepherd seems appropriate for us at this time of transition in our diocese:

"In seeking, he finds and he finds because he takes risks. He does not stop when disappointed and he does not yield to weariness. Indeed, he is stubborn in doing good, anointed with the divine obstinacy that loses sight of no one. Not only does he keep his doors open, but he also goes to seek out those who no longer wish to enter them."

"In the heart of the Good Shepherd, the Father's love shines forth. There I know I am welcomed and understood as I am; there, with all my sins and limitations, I know the certainty that I am chosen and loved."

"The heart of the Good Shepherd tells us that his love is limitless. It is never exhausted and it never gives up. There we see his infinite and boundless self-giving. There we find the source of that faithful and meek love which sets free and makes others free."
