FATHER JOHN'S CORNER:

This weekend I will be giving an update on the building project at all the Masses. The summary is that we will be starting the construction of the office center in the months ahead. We will have to hold off on the construction of the parish/event center at this time due to an increase in construction costs and other factors. What this means is that we will be able to start the office center sooner than anticipated and with probably a minimal mortgage. In addition to the offices, the center will have two conference rooms that can be used for small groups, PSR classes or meeting space. There will also be a relatively large atrium or gathering area that will be used for socials after Mass and other events. This office center will be able to meet our current needs, will be connected to the church and will also provide for the connection to the future event or parish center. In the Prayer for the Church in Transition which has been used throughout the building campaign process, we prayed for God's wisdom that we might be receptive to change, conversion and growth. In consulting with the Parish Council, Finance Council and Building Committee in re-evaluating the building project, I feel it is best to change our original plan and build only the office/parish center at this time. The completed building will be something we will all be proud of. Thank you to all who are making this project possible through your sacrificial donations and prayers.

This Wednesday will be the first of two segments on the life of St. Benedict. In addition to being enlightened by his spiritual life the scenery in the video of the locations where he lived are amazing. The video will begin at 7pm in the Gathering Area of the church following the 6:30pm Mass.

Saturday at 10am in the hall will be the first of 3 sessions of a book study on the Eucharist. We will be looking at the introduction and chapter 1 of the book "This is My Body." Copies of the book are available in the St. Joseph room off the Gathering Area.

The next couple of weeks are filled with many other opportunities to grow in your relationship with God this Lent. Next Sunday 2/25 is the Lenten Family Activity beginning at 9:30am in the hall. Wednesday the 28th is the Diocesan wide Night of Confessions from 5-8pm in every Catholic church in the diocese. We will be having a Lenten Parish Evening with Greg Wasinski on Thursday the 29th and Soup, Sandwiches and Archbishop Sheen will be Sunday March 3rd. And there is so much more to fill in the empty slots! Please read through the bulletin for all these Lenten activities.

-Fr. John

FAST AND ABSTINENCE:

Good Friday is a day of fasting and abstinence which means one large meal and two smaller meals as well as abstaining from meat. The law of fasting is for those 18-60 years old.

The Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence which means no meat is to be eaten on those Fridays. The law of abstinence is obligatory for all who are 14 years and older.

Why? On Fridays during Lent, we particularly remember the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. In memory of this great sacrifice, we continue the tradition of penance and sacrifice – the abstaining from meat on Fridays is an outward manifestation of an interior reality: the conversion of our hearts.

INVITE US DEEPER

Almighty and ever living God,
you invite us deeper into your world,

your Lent.
May this time be one of outward focus;
seeking you in those we often ignore.
Help us live a Lent focused on freedom,
generosity,
and encounter.
Give us hearts hungry to serve you
and those who need what we have to give.

UNCONDITIONALLY REFLECTIONS

“One”

Receiving Holy Communion is not only about finding Jesus in the Eucharist, but it's about our goal to completely lose ourselves in His love and life. Seeing ourselves as one with Christ, not figuratively, literally being the earthly dwelling of His presence to allow Him to transform us to become more like Him in every way. We must not separate the Catholic we are on Sunday from the one we are the rest of the week or vice versa - WE ARE THE CHURCH.

Reflection Question: Paragraph 1370 of the Catechism reminds us of the beauty of the “Communion of Saints.” In what ways, does this make receiving Holy Communion even more powerful for you?

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Thank-you to all who made a gift to Catholic Charities last weekend. Because of your support, hundreds of thousands of individuals will be given help + hope in the Diocese of Cleveland. If you haven't yet had the opportunity to make a gift, it's not too late! Pledge envelopes are still available in the Gathering Area.
