God of the Living

In our Gospel reading, Jesus says that God is “not God of the dead, but of the living”. You might think that’s a pretty obvious statement. But it has profound implications for how we live as Christians because this reality underlies something at the heart of Catholic teaching—the Communion of the Saints.

The saints, those who have died and gone before us in faith, remain connected to us through Jesus Christ. They aren’t detached spirits floating about in some mystical realm but fellow members of Christ’s body who remain deeply concerned about God’s plan for salvation here on earth. They have been through the same struggles we have and they now stand before God’s throne in heaven, cheering us on as we live out our lives and missions here on earth. They are alive in the body of Christ, just as we are.

Because they are alive in Christ, we can ask them to pray for us and intercede for us. This is our basic understanding of the Communion of Saints—through Jesus, we are all “in communion” with each other. We can ask the saints, as our brothers and sisters in heaven, to lift us up to our God and intercede on our behalf. The readings for today reaffirm that belief by reminding us that God is indeed the God of the living—those of us still on earth as well as those who now live directly in the Divine Presence.

Mass of Healing

According to the American Cancer Society, there will be 1,762,450 new cases of cancer this year in the United States.

Cancer comes to the young and old, male and female, rich and poor, Christians or not, and expected or not. Cancer will affect and change a person and the family for life. It will bring fear, sorrow, denial, anger, acceptance, therapy, healing, wanting to help the sick. The Mass brings healing and soothes all aspects of cancer and more.

If you or your loved one are experiencing the effects of cancer or any other illness or if you are a caregiver, you are invited to attend a healing Mass at 5:30 pm on the first Sunday of each month at Holy Redeemer. You are not alone, forgotten, or ignored. Come feel the tender invitation of Jesus telling you: “Come to me all of you who are weary and find life burdensome. I will refresh you and give you rest.” ~ Matthew 11:28

The service consists of the regular Sunday Mass which fulfills the Sunday obligation, followed by Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament offered for your special needs, for increase in religious vocations, for the sanctity of the family, and for those who are ill and their caregivers. Also there will be the Anointing of the Sick and Benediction.

The Mass will be on December 1st at 5:30 pm.

“The Mass of Healing” (all Masses bring healing)

was approved by Bishop Michael Olson on October 31, 2019.
