MESSAGE FROM THE DEACON

Today we celebrate the birth of the Catholic Church, when the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples of Jesus as tongues of fire to be able to proclaim the gospel to the world. The readings are full of imagery to remind of many things of our salvation history as the people of God. Jesus breathing the Holy Spirit reminds us of God breathing life into man. Tongues and many languages remind us of the Tower of Babel. And most importantly, we are reminded that the Holy Spirit is working to make as one.

In the gospel, Jesus breathed on his disciples so they could receive the Holy Spirit, much like God breathed the gift of life into Adam in Creation, John draws upon that same image to convey a re-Creation of the children of God as one Body with Christ as the head.

To fully understand the first reading of Acts, we have to make sure we see the context in which it is written and experienced. Pentecost originally was a Jewish holiday to celebrate the grain harvest. All Jewish men were required to make a pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the feast. That is why there were so many people from all over, each obviously speaking their native language. Confusing the languages at Babel was a result of man's disobedience to God. The gift of understanding the different languages was a gift of the Holy Spirit to be able to spread the gospel message to all of the nations.

The second reading gets to the heart of Pentecost and why Jesus gave us the Church and the Holy Spirit. Both are always working to bring God's people together to be one people again. In our "co-exist" society today where my truth might be different than your truth or that my feelings are more important than the truth, this unifying mission remains and is unchangeable. Don't lose heart in the conflicts of our time. The Holy Spirit is always at work in us! Praise to the Holy Spirit for giving us hope and love!

God is good all of the time and all of time God is good!

In Christ, Deacon Tim
