Divine Worship

Continuing from Archdiocesan Liturgical Handbook (ALH) Chapter 1H states:

Section 1.41.4: The corporal should be white in color and of sufficient dimensions so that at least the main chalice and paten may be placed upon it completely. The material of corporals should be absorbent and easily laundered.<sup>163</sup>

Section 1.41.5: Corporals should be ironed in such a way that their distinctive manner of folding helps to contain any small particles of the consecrated host that may remain at the conclusion of the Mass.<sup>164</sup>

Altar Linens—Purificators

Section 1.42.1: Purificators should be white in color. They should be ironed in such a way that they may be easily used for the wiping of the lip of the chalice.<sup>165</sup>

Section 1.42.2: Purificators are used to wipe the Precious Blood from the lip of the chalice and to purify sacred vessels.

Section 1.42.3: Purificators are customarily brought to the altar with chalices

Section 1.42.4: Whenever the Precious Blood is distributed from the chalice, purificators should be used to wipe the rim of the chalice during distribution. If the Precious Blood is accidentally spilled, purificators should be used to absorb the spill and a corporal should be placed upon the area.

Altar Linens—Other Cloths

Section 1.43.1 The Order of Mass calls for the washing of the hands of the priest celebrant in the course of the Preparation of the Gifts and the altar. Since it is his hands and not only his fingers which are washed at the lavabo, the lavabo towel should be of adequate size and sufficiently absorbent for drying his hands. Neither the color nor the material of the lavabo towel is prescribed, though efforts should be made to avoid the appearance of a dish towel or other cloth with a purely secular use<sup>166</sup>

Section 1.43.2 A pall may be used to cover the chalice at Mass in order to protect the Precious Blood from insects or other foreign objects. In order that palls may be kept immaculately clean they should be made with removable covers of a worthy material which may be easily washed in the sacrarium and then laundered.<sup>167</sup>

Please bring new items to the office. Please do not donate religious items, as the general public is involved in purchasing tickets. Donations are tax deductible. We will need your name and the value of the item to complete not only the prize list but to meet the requirements of the Oregon Department of Justice. All prizes will be listed in the bulletin as they come into the office.

We also need people willing to ask businesses for donations. Please contact Paula Monroe at 503-369-4130 if interested.
