Church Offertory

COVID-19 has had a tremendous negative impact on the Church's weekly offertory. Please continue to support the mission of St. Frederic Parish by dropping your envelopes into the mail slot at the Parish Center, mailing them or going to stfredericchurch.org/donations to donate online or in the collection basket at Mass.

BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $ ____ to the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Well Done!

We have reached our goal for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. Our goal was $11,279.94.

We pledged $11,953.50, which is 105.97%!

We are 1 of 13 churches to reach our goal so early!

Congratulations, St. Frederic Parishioners!

Phyllis Dahlin

Office Manager—Bookkeeper

Pentecost Sunday

We often begin Mass with the prayer from today's Epistle: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." We praise the God who has revealed Himself as a Trinity, a communion of persons.

Communion with the Trinity is the goal of our worship—and the purpose of the salvation history that begins in the Bible and continues in the Eucharist and sacraments of the Church.

We see the beginnings of God's self-revelation in today's First Reading, as He passes before Moses and cries out His holy name. Israel had sinned in worshipping the golden calf (see Exodus 32). But God does not condemn them to perish. Instead, He proclaims His mercy and faithfulness to His covenant.

God loved Israel as His firstborn son among the nations (see Exodus 4:22). Through Israel—heirs of His covenant with Abraham—God planned to reveal Himself as the Father of all nations (see Genesis 22:18).

The memory of God's covenant testing of Abraham—and Abraham's faithful obedience—lies behind today's Gospel.

In commanding Abraham to offer his only beloved son (see Genesis 22:2, 12, 16), God was preparing us for the fullest possible revelation of His love for the world.

As Abraham was willing to offer Isaac, God did not spare His own Son but handed Him over for us all (see Romans 8:32).

In this, He revealed what was only disclosed partially to Moses—that His kindness continues for a thousand generations, that He forgives our sin, and that He takes us back as His very own people (see Deuteronomy 4:20; 9:29).

Jesus humbled himself to die in obedience to God's will. And for this, the Spirit of God raised Him from the dead (see Romans 8:11), and gave Him a name above every name (see Philippians 2:8-10).

This is the name we glorify in today's Responsorial—the name of our Lord, the God who is Love (see 1 John 4:8, 16).

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all those who have attended Mass this past few weeks during our limited reopening of Masses. We are still required to have parishioners sign up for Mass, not just show up. Requesting Mass attendance does not guarantee being placed in that Mass. You will receive a confirmation phone call unless you have been told that you can attend Mass on a weekly basis. If you have not signed up yet and would like to attend Mass, please call the office or sign up on our website at: <http://stfredericchurch.org/reopen>

As a reminder, please be conscious to practice physical distancing from other people who are not part of your household, including entering and exiting. Even though we've instituted strict safety measures such as sanitizing all touch points after each Mass and removing books and materials from the pews, there is nothing we can do to completely eliminate all risk. If you do not feel comfortable attending Mass, you should not attend.

Archbishop Sample is continuing with the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. This not only releases you from any requirement, but also means that attending Mass any day of the week is equally beneficial. Any opportunity that you have to receive the Eucharist should be counted as a great blessing.

We have not received details regarding Phase 2 for Columbia County and what impact that will have on Mass capacity, but will make adjustments as soon as we can to allow more people to attend. Contact tracing will still need to be followed.

Thank you for your patience and understanding through this process.

God bless,

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to thank all parishioners who have continued to support St. Frederic during these difficult times. As you write your check, please write separate checks for maintenance, capital campaigns and SVDP.

May God bless you abundantly.

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu

First Communion

The First Communion class has 2 classes to complete. The classes will be held in Buccini Hall from 11:00 to 12:15 p.m. on Saturday, June 6 and Sunday, June 7.

First Reconciliation for all children will be Saturday June 13 at 10:00 a.m., followed by First Communion practice.

First Holy Communion will be at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 14 and June 21. The class will be split to accommodate physical distancing requirements. There will be no reception afterwards. Holy Communion will be under one species only. These are precautions because of COVID-19.

Message from Pope Francis

"Dear brothers and sisters in the United States, I have witnessed with great concern the disturbing social unrest in your nation in these past days, following the tragic death of Mr. George Floyd. My friends, we cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life. At the same time, we have to recognize that the violence of recent nights is self-destructive and self-defeating. Nothing is gained by violence and so much is lost." <https://youtu.be/Ou2owd-efm4>
