BEQUESTS

I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of $_____ to the Arch-diocese of Portland in Oregon for the sole benefit of St. Frederic Catholic Church located at 175th S. 13th, St. Helens, Oregon to be used under the direction of the priest at the time of my death.

Second Collections

This weekend is for the Catholic Communication

Formed.org's pick of the week is Saint Anthony of Egypt. St. Anthony was a saint whose heroic life of humility and prayer inspired many other great Saints, including St. Athanasius and St. Augustine. Sit down with Taylor Kemp and Dr. Elizabeth Klein as they explore the life of this great saint.

Mass Intentions

Envelopes are available in the vestibule for all parishioners who wish to request a mass. You may put your Mass intention request in the collection basket or mail to the office. Please make sure to include your phone number in case there are questions. Stipend is $10 for a Mass Intention.

Dear Parishioners,

Many of you, if not all of you, who receive envelopes did not receive them. We received a notice from the company on January 10, 2023, who manufactures them informing us that due to "their inability to add employees at the rate necessary" to keep up with production they are behind.

They will probably not have this quarter's envelopes ready for shipment. They will resume delivery by the first Sunday in March and the quarterly supply will restart in April.

We have envelopes in the pews for you to use until you receive your 2nd quarter envelopes. Please use these. Please remember to add your envelope number on them and your name.

We will be receiving a supply of bulk envelopes this coming week for you to take home.

Bible Refection from St. Paul Society

January 15, 2023 — 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jesus speaks through the prophet Isaiah in today's First Reading.

He tells us of the mission given to Him by the Father from the womb: "'You are My servant,' He said to Me."

Servant and Son, our Lord was sent to lead a new exodus-to raise up the exiled tribes of Israel, to gather and restore them to God. More than that, He was to be a light to the nations, that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (see Acts 13:46-47).

Before the first exodus, a lamb was offered in sacrifice and its blood painted on the Israelites' door posts. The blood of the lamb identified their homes and the Lord "passed over" these in executing judgment on the Egyptians (see Exodus 12:1-23, 27).

In the new exodus, Jesus is the "Lamb of God," as John beholds Him in the Gospel today (see 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19). Our Lord sings of this in today's Psalm. He has come, He says, to offer His body to do the will of God (see Hebrews 10:3-13).

The sacrifices, oblations, holocausts, and sin-offerings given after the first exodus had no power to take away sins (see Hebrews 10:4). They were meant not to save but to teach (see Galatians 3:24). In offering these sacrifices, the people were to learn self-sacrifice-that they were made for worship, to offer themselves freely to God and to delight in His will.

Only Jesus could make that perfect offering of Himself. And through His sacrifice, He has given us ears open to obedience and made it possible for us to hear the Father's call to holiness, as Paul says in today's Epistle.

He has made us children of God, baptized in the blood of the Lamb (see Revelation 7:14). And we are to join our sacrifice to His, to offer our bodies-our lives-as living sacrifices in the spiritual worship of the Mass (see Romans 12:1).
