From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Here are the norms for the Distribution of Holy Communion under both Species.

In the Archdiocese of Portland, communion under the species of the Precious Blood is permitted, according to the pastoral judgement and discretion of the pastor, in the following cases:

1. To deacons at the mass of their ordination and when ministering at the sacred liturgy.
2. To those whose gluten intolerance or wheat allergy is so severe that they cannot receive communion using a low gluten host.
3. To the bride and the bridegroom at the nuptial Mass.
4. To adults baptized at the Easter Vigil, or at the Mass following their baptism (if not at the Easter Vigil).
5. To those receiving First Holy Communion provide any risk of profanation is eliminated.
6. To the newly confirmed at the Mass of their confirmation.
7. 7. To baptized persons newly received into the full communion of the Catholic Church.
8. To priests who are not able to celebrate or concelebrate Mass.
9. To small groups making retreats, in a Mass celebrated especially for those actually participating; to those taking part in the meeting of some pastoral commission, at the Mass which they celebrate in common.
10. To members of communities at the conventual Mass or "community" Mass.
11. To those consecrated to the life of virginity a the Mass of their consecration.
12. To those professed at the Mass of their religious profession, provided they pronounce their vows during the Mass.
13. To those mentioned in nos. 1, 11 and 12 at Masses celebrating their jubilees.

Please read them carefully and if you have a question call the office. Detailed information is on our St. Frederic website.

God Bless you.

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu
