From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

In 1983 a revision of the canon Law was published. Pastoral councils were recommended for both diocesan bishops and parish pastors.

Canon 511: Talks about the bishop and diocesan pastoral council.

Canon 536: Talks about the pastor and the parish pastoral council.

Canon 511: In each diocese a pastoral council is to be established under the authority of the bishop all those things which pertain to pastoral works.

Canon 512: The pastoral council consists of Christian faithful who are in full communion with the Catholic Church, clerics, members of institutions of consecrated life and especially lay persons, who are designated in a manner determined by the diocesan bishop.

Canon 536, Paragraph 1: After the diocesan bishop has listened to the presbyteral council and if he judges it opportune, a pastoral council is to be established in each parish; the pastor presides over it, and through it the Christian faithful along with those who share in pastoral care of the parish in virtue of their office give their help in fostering pastoral activity.

Paragraph 2: This pastoral council possesses a consultative vote only and is governed by norms determined by the diocesan bishop.

Pastoral/parish councils are representative in that they make present the wisdom of the parish. They seek what is prudent, not just in every time and place, but in the parish's particular situation.

- Councils serve others in the name of Jesus Christ and enable their fellow parishioners to grow in their relationship to Jesus Christ.
- Councils proclaim good news of Jesus Christ.
- Councils should try their best to build up a community of love.
- Councils should reflect about the gifts of each parishioners in parish life, for example, Liturgy service to the poor, visiting the sick/bringing communion to the sick.

Our Pastoral Council Members now are:

- |                                |                             |

Annual Giving Tree for At-Risk Teens

Our annual Giving Tree is now up in the church! Take a tag to purchase a gift for at-risk teens in the St. Helen School District. We are working to provide food bags and holiday gifts for teens who might otherwise go without a Christmas. These teens may lack parental support or be in unstable living conditions.

The deadline to return gifts is December 13, 2024. Please bring your donations to the parish office.

Thank you for your generosity!

Lost and Found

A baby doll, Black gloves and a small rubics cube was left in the church. If this belongs to you, please see Sally after Mass
