April News

Events this month:

April is national child abuse month.

Week of the Young Child

We will be celebrating the week of the young child April 16th-20th. During that week, your child will be participating in special activities during the week.

Picture Day:

We will be having spring pictures during the day on April 26th & 27th. The photographer will then be back in the afternoon for immediate viewing and ordering. More details to follow.

Reminders:

Please remember that families are responsible for supplying diapers and wet wipes for their children. Please make sure that all supplies are labeled with your child's name.

Please see your child's teacher for more details.
