"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life?" - Mt 16:24b-26

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" Profit and gain. Most of us would be happy to experience these things. In our capitalist economy, profit is the point. Gain is the goal. Thought of in terms of money or possessions, having plenty of them often offers us a sense of security and sometimes a kind of pleasure. But today Jesus warns us about putting too much stock in this kind of worldly security. It's important to recognize that Jesus isn't condemning money or possessions in and of themselves. But he is advocating a radical rethinking of our priorities. In a way, he turns everything upside down. Instead of giving us tips to "gain the whole world," Jesus instructs us to take up our cross and follow him, and to lose our life for his sake. This is not a message about gain but about loss. At least, that's how it appears on the surface. When we take up our cross--embracing the sacrifices that come with our vocation, or accepting the sufferings that inevitably cross our path--it may not gain us immediate relief, but it will unite us to Christ who suffered for us on the cross. When we lose our life for his sake--giving of our time, our talents, and our treasure for the sake of those we love or those in need--it may not fill our pocketbooks, but it will fill our hearts. Jesus wants our lives to be full. Full of love, full of peace, full of joy. Today he reminds us to be sure we aren't so full of other "stuff" that we have no room left for what truly satisfies. Jesus promises that in losing our life for his sake, we will find it in the end. May we have the confidence to put our trust in this promise.

PARISH INFORMATION

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL NEWS

St Joseph School is preparing for our 60th anniversary! We will celebrate at the 11:00 Mass on Sept. 7 and follow it with a hamburger/hotdog cookout provided by the school in the church patio. The school will also reveal the gift it has been working on for the church in appreciation of 60 great years of support. St. Joseph School is still enrolling students, come by for your personal tour! We would love to add you to our family!

CHILDREN 'S FAITH FORMATION

Parents - Registration will continue for the next two weekends after all the Masses. Please be sure to stop by and get your child/children registered. We look forward to another fabulous year! First day of class is September 17, 2014. We are still seeking assistants for our program.
