All Saints

"Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:11-12a

ALL SAINTS DAY

In a few weeks, we'll be sitting down to a meal and giving thanks for all of our blessings. Some of us may even spend the day at a shelter, preparing dinner for the homeless, and this is a good thing. But we would do well to remember that these shelters are open every day of the year, and just like on a Thursday in November, a meal must be prepared every afternoon. There are those among us who regularly schedule a day or two a week to serve or prepare these meals. They don't do it for recognition or self-fulfillment; they do it because it must be done. They often do such things in total anonymity; they are truly saints of today. Today's Gospel reading from Matthew is Jesus' gift of the beatitudes. They are gifts because the word beatitude means happiness or blessedness. In detailing those who would receive such a gift, Jesus is revealing who really are saints among us: the poor in spirit, the sad, the meek, the hungry and thirsty, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, and the persecuted. Each of these saints desires joy and happiness for all they encounter. In all needs, we find blessedness in Jesus Christ. We are taught in the Catechism of the Catholic Church that the church is "a communion of saints." This expression is defined first and foremost in the Eucharist, by which the faithful are united in one body. It also refers to all who have suffered in the name of Christ to better our lives (CCC 960-961). Today is the feast of All Saints, in which we recognize and give thanks for those who have gone before us preserving and promoting Christianity, some having paid the ultimate sacrifice for their beliefs. We are called to be saints for today. Will we answer?

FOOD FOR THE POOR

To the St. Joseph Family:

Food For The Poor wishes to thank you for the welcome you extended to Monsignor Waldow on his recent visit to Your parish. On behalf of our brothers and sisters throughout the Caribbean and Latin America, we thank you for your compassion and care. We are all blessed by and grateful for your generosity. In Christ, The Food For The Poor Family.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK NOVEMBER 1-7, 2015

God calls us all to live our faith and seek our vocation to become a deacon, priest, religious sister, married or single person. National Awareness week is a time for reflection and during this week we encourage all Catholics to: Take time to pray for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. Reflect on our own vocation and strengthen our personal relationship with Christ. Educate our young people about the importance of silent prayer and taking time to truly listen to God's voice in our hearts.

TIEMPO DE ATRASAR SUS RELOJES

No se olvide de atrasar su reloj este sábado 31 de octubre antes de irse a dormir.

SEMANA NACIONAL DE LAS VOCACIONES

1-7 DE NOVIEMBRE 2015

Dios nos llama a vivir nuestra fe y a buscar nuestra vocación para llegar a ser diáconos, sacerdotes, hermanas religiosas, personas casadas o solteras.

National Vocation Awareness Week

La Semana Nacional de las Vocaciones es un tiempo para la reflexión, durante esta semana animamos a todos los católicos a que tomen el tiempo para orar por la vida consagrada al sacerdocio, reflexionar acerca de nuestra propia vocación y fortalecer nuestra relación con Cristo así como educar a nuestros jóvenes acerca de la importancia de la oración en silencio y de tomar el tiempo para verdaderamente escuchar la voz de Dios en nuestros corazones.
