SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." The Easter season is resplendent with the joy of eternal life. Jesus conquered death through his resurrection and promises all believers a share in this miraculous triumph. The gates of heaven have been opened for us by the great sacrifice of our Savior. All good things lie in wait for us who know "the only true God" and his Son, Jesus Christ. When we gather together in our communities of faith, it's easy to remember all of this. We share common beliefs and practices with those friends, family members, and neighbors who attend our church. But carrying the joy of Easter with us out into the "world" can be more of a challenge. Once we step outside the safe confines of our parish or home, we encounter those who do not know the true God. We work with, study with, encounter, or gather with many people who have forgotten, abandoned, or never even known Jesus. Sometimes this can make us hesitant to share our joy, or even apologetic for our beliefs. But of course we are called to be witnesses of what we believe, not cowards who hide it from public view. Let us take courage from today's Gospel. Jesus himself offered prayers on behalf of his followers. "I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for the ones you have given me." As the followers of Christ, we have the benefit of his own desire to help us, to strengthen us even amidst the challenges that we face. He knows that we "are in the world" even though he is not here in the same way. And he has asked God the Father to share his divine blessings with us even Registration is now open for our Montessori and Prekindergarten classes. We are accepting ages 3 to 5.

We continue to maintain an affordable monthly tuition rate of $350 per student, but hurry in as our classes are filling up.

FAITH FORMATION

Only those who have encountered Jesus in their daily lives will want others to do the same! As a catechist we do just that! We share with others what we ourselves have experienced, God's divine mercy and love. If you feel God is inviting you to walk alongside children and youth as they begin or continue their Faith Formation experience please join us in this never ending adventure. Please contact Sister Hilda Rodriguez for further information. Blessings!
