FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: MATTHEW 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: “You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

ADULTS: In what way might you be hiding the light of Christ from others? What could you do to improve this?

CHILDREN: How can you let the light of Christ in you shine for others this week?

Our Lady of Lourdes – Feast Day – February 11th

The many miracles which have been performed through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin at Lourdes prompted the Church to institute a special commemorative feast, the "Apparition of the Immaculate Virgin Mary." The Office gives the historical background. Four years after the promulgation of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception (1854), the Blessed Virgin appeared a number of times to a very poor and holy girl named Bernadette. The actual spot was in a grotto on the bank of the Gave River near Lourdes.

The Immaculate Conception had a youthful appearance and was clothed in a pure white gown and mantle, with an azure blue girdle. A golden rose adorned each of her bare feet. On her first apparition, February 11, 1858, the Blessed Virgin bade the girl make the sign of the Cross piously and say the rosary with her. Bernadette saw her take the rosary that was hanging from her arms into her hands. This was repeated in subsequent apparitions.

With childlike simplicity Bernadette once sprinkled holy water on the vision, fearing that it was a deception of the evil spirit; but the Blessed Virgin smiled pleasantly, and her face became even more lovely. The third time Mary appeared she invited the girl to come to the grotto daily for two weeks. Now she frequently spoke to Bernadette. On one occasion she ordered her to tell the ecclesiastical authorities to build a church on the spot and to organize processions. Bernadette also was told to drink and wash at the spring still hidden under the sand.

Finally on the feast of the Annunciation, the beautiful Lady announced her name, "I am the Immaculate Conception." The report of cures occurring at the grotto spread quickly and the more it spread, the greater the number of Christians who visited the hallowed place. The publicity given these miraculous events on the one hand and the seeming sincerity and innocence of the girl on the other made it necessary for the bishop of Tarbes to institute a judicial inquiry. Four years later he declared the apparitions to be supernatural and permitted the public veneration of the Immaculate Conception in the grotto. Soon a chapel was erected, and since that time countless pilgrims come every year to Lourdes to fulfill promises or to beg graces. — Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch.

HISTORY ABOUT VALENTINE'S DAY!

In the third century, Emperor Claudius II didn't allow his troops to marry. He believed that a soldier's performance in battle would be more focused if he was not worried about his wife and children back home. Additionally, polygamy was more popular and culturally acceptable in 3rd Century Rome than marriage between one man and one woman. As a young priest Father Valentine opposed both the Emperor's edict and society's pagan ideals, and so he married man and woman—teaching that marriage was sacred, life-long, and to be embraced. At that time, Christians were captured, tortured, and martyred for practicing their faith. Despite the risk, Father Valentine's heroic love for God and his people empowered him to valiantly share the Gospel until martyrdom on February 14, 270 AD. While in captivity, one of his appointed judges had a blind daughter who came to him for help. He prayed over her and she was miraculously cured leading to her father's conversion to Christianity. Legend holds that Valentine's last words on earth were in a note to the judge's daughter, ending with the phrase: "From Your Valentine." St. Valentine is the patron saint of "lovers," because he loved selflessly and unconditionally to the end of his life and beyond.

“You are the light of the world”. The readings of the day speak about the usefulness. God Himself creates every living and non-living being. They are dependent and interrelated with each other. Every being is important in the sight of God. The preciousness is found in the parable of the lost sheep.

Today, we are on the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Gospel speaks about the parable of salt and light. Salt has its particular character and when it is placed in the right place, it brings the real taste. When I compare with the people of God, they must spread out into the world to give the real taste of love, peace and joy. But one must realize that when a believer scatters into the world, his salt is necessary and useful. There is no salt other than the salt of the believer; the success of the mission rests upon the believer and him alone. The light dispels the darkness and we have an example that Jesus Himself says “I am the Light of the world” (Jn. 8:12). So, every individual has the capacity to do well, so, as a Christian, all faithful have the duty to be a light in the life of people who are in darkness. We hear in the first reading that if you offer your food to the hungry and do good to the needy then the Lord will hear their cry. Therefore, the faithful ones have the duty to get involved in the mission of Christ. This will give new sight to the people and they will realize and deeply experience the active presence of God in their lives.

Pray and Practice: Let us ask the grace of the Lord that we may be able to grow in God’s love and shine among our neighbor’s to direct them. My continued prayers for you and God bless. Fr.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT:

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Weekend of February 8/9 - In this weekend’s readings and psalm, the prevailing theme is that of light: We are the light of the world; our light breaks forth like the dawn; our light shines in the darkness; our light reflects generosity and justice. Good stewards know they are the lamp, and Christ is the flame that, through them, illuminates the earth. They know that they carry Christ’s light in their hearts, and let it shine through their words and deeds. What are we doing to shine Christ’s light on the hungry, the homeless and others most in need of God’s mercy? How do we exercise good stewardship over the light of Christ that burns within each of us?

What happens when a person makes a report of sexual abuse to the Diocese?

Each call and each caller is unique. Callers to the Diocese may contact the Victims' Assistance Coordinator to report sexual abuse. Some reports initially reach the diocese in the form of emails or letters. Diocesan Sexual Abuse Hotline: Direct Line: 817-602-5119 - The Victims' Assistance Coordinator seeks to recognize and respond to the emotional state of callers, assuring them of our deep concern for their well-being and assists the victims/survivors throughout the process.

- Callers are asked to share such details of the abuse as they are able, so that we can know what happened, when the abuse took place, and who was involved.
- When callers meet with the Victims' Assistance Coordinator, they are encouraged to bring a friend or family member with them for support. It is always helpful for persons reporting misconduct to have the support of a family member or friend who can accompany them at any stage of the process. At the first meeting, the Coordinator offers to arrange a meeting between the victim-survivor and the Bishop. A meeting with the Bishop is an option open to victims-survivors at any time during the healing process.
- Reviews the victim-survivors right to report their abuse to civil authorities, presents them with printed instructions on how to contact law enforcement in the jurisdiction (suburb, city or county) where the abuse occurred and guides them through the reporting process. The Victims' Assistance Coordinator reports the allegation of abuse to civil authorities and to the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services at 800-252-5400.
- Answer any questions callers have and discuss with them the kinds of assistance they need in order to continue their healing process.
- Can provide a list of counseling and spiritual resources and assist victim-survivor to contact an appropriate therapist; or the Coordinator will work with any counselors already providing therapy to victim-survivor and their families.
- Pastoral care and outreach to victim-survivors and their families are our first concerns and continue as long as the victim-survivor requests it.

"I believe that life is valuable, even when it is unwanted, even when it is physically imperfect. I believe our society has a responsibility to defend the vulnerable and the weak. And I believe our nation should set a goal that unborn children should be welcomed in life and protected in law." President George W. Bush, at the signing ceremony for Texas' Parental Notification Law (June 7, 1999)
