Parish Announcements

Weekly Offertory: We thank you for your generous support of St. Mary's Parish without which we would not be able to carry out our many ministries. Last week's offertory was $15,580. Of this amount, $7,495 came from 131 E-Givers, and $8,085 came from envelopes and cash. Please consider E-Giving. On the first week of the month we will provide year to date offertory receipts against budget.

Learning to Pray: Are you searching for a way to grow in prayer and the spiritual life? Do you want a more intimate relationship with God? Join us for a four part series that Father Matera will give on Learning to Pray. The series examines (1) The Prayer of Jesus, (2) Jesus' Teaching on Prayer, (3) The Prayer of the Early Church, (4) Prayer and Liturgy. This series will take held on the Thursdays of September 20, 27, October 4, 11 in the Lower Church at 7:00 PM.

Construction Update: Thank you for your cooperation during our Campus Connection construction project. Retaining walls are going up behind the school in preparation for the new access road to the North parking lot and foundation walls are being poured for the elevator and lower level lobby access to the lower church. In September we will give an overview of the project with finish material boards and we will introduce new and exciting sponsorship opportunities.

A Potential Saving of $80,000: A number of families have responded positively to the request to accelerate pledge payments to Campus Connection and we greatly appreciated this. If you are able to help by making pledge payments ahead of schedule, we strongly encourage you to do so since it reduces project financing costs. For example, if all pledges were to be paid in full by the end of 2018, we would save more than $80,000 in interest expense!

Save the Date: On Wednesday, September 5, at 7:00 PM, there will be a "Listening Session" in the Lower Church. The purpose of this "Listening Session" is to help the Archdiocese prepare for its upcoming Synod. You will have an opportunity to address three questions: What is the Archdiocese doing well? What is the Archdiocese not doing so well? What is the Archdiocese not doing that it should be doing? Please join us for this important session so that our parish can help to prepare for the upcoming Synod.

On Retreat at Saint Joseph Abbey, Spencer

Last week, I was on retreat at Saint Joseph Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts. I have been going there for several years. Except for one conference in the morning, the retreat consists of participating in the Liturgy with the Monks (Morning Prayer, Mass, Midday Prayer, Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer) and time alone to read, to reflect, and to pray. Meals are taken in silence, and those on retreat are expected to observe silence.

The setting is spectacularly beautiful. The monastery is at the top a hill that allows one to look in wonder at the beautiful surrounding countryside. I walked up and down that hill several times a day, reflecting and praying. The best part of the retreat for me was to be away—away from the telephone, away from email, away from television, away from the news, just away.

This year I wanted to focus on prayer: what does it mean to pray, how should I pray. So I brought a number of books on prayer with me. But every year, the retreat provides me with a surprise, something I did not or could not anticipate. This year it was the discovery of the writings of a German woman, the mystic Adrienne von Speyer who lived in the first half of the 20th century.

I had always known about her, but I never read anything by her. To be quite honest, I thought she was a bit strange. But the retreat master introduced her writings, and quite by chance (or was it by divine providence?) I found a small book by her in the monastery library entitled Elijah. I read and read, and I was taken aback. Her insights to the story of Elijah (which I had read so many times) gave me a new appreciation of this biblical text and how God works in our lives.

This seems to happen whenever I go on retreat. I begin by setting the agenda, but God has another plan for me. This year it was the writings of Adrienne von Speyer. What it will be next year, I do not know.

This retreat was an important moment for me. I needed to step back from all that is happening and regain my balance. That is what the retreat did for me. It helped me to see myself and my work in a fresh perspective, from God's perspective I hope. It taught me to slow down a bit and not take myself so seriously. It reminded me to focus on what is important and enduring: a deep and abiding relationship with God. That is what I did on my retreat this year. When you see me getting frantic and hectic again, remind me of my retreat.
