Sacrament of Confirmation

As you've noticed from our bulletin cover we have a number of our parish youth receiving their Confirmation this Sunday afternoon at the Cathedral of St. Joseph, as well as two adults who will be Confirmed there on Tuesday evening. In our Catholic tradition, Confirmation is one of three Sacraments of Initiation, along with Baptism and Eucharist. Although in the early days of Christianity, these three Sacraments were celebrated in one event at the Easter Vigil, over time they became separated from one another for very practical reasons. As the Church began to grow in number, particularly after Christianity became the official religion of the Roman Empire, the local bishop could not be present at every baptism. So the "Chrismation" that the bishop bestowed following baptism had to be delayed until a future time when the bishop could come and "confirm" the candidates' baptisms. Then those, who were now confirmed, would finally be able to approach the Eucharistic table and share Communion, completing their entrance into the Christian faith. Also during this time, whole families were being baptized, including young children and infants. In the West, Communion and Confirmation were subsequently delayed until the Baptized child reached an age when she or he was old enough to grasp some basics of the faith including a basic understanding of the Eucharist. During the pontificate of Pope St. Pius X, there was concern about the infrequent reception of Holy Communion by the faithful. In order to encourage people from a young age to receive Communion on a more regular basis, he lowered the minimum age to receive Holy Communion and allowed Communion to be received before Confirmation. From that time on, Confirmation came to be seen more as a Sacrament of reaching a kind of faith "adulthood" in the Church, a time for a young person to affirm for him or herself, the faith into which their parents initiated them. Today in some places around the country local diocesan bishops have decided to experiment a bit with lowering the age of when youth can receive Confirmation, and in some cases even celebrating this Sacrament prior to their receiving First Holy Communion. In the Archdiocese of Hartford, the earliest a youth may receive Confirmation remains the spring of Tenth Grade.

The other item of note is that beginning this year, Archbishop Blair has requested that all parishes bring their Confirmation Candidates to the Cathedral, the mother church of the Archdiocese, to experience the wider Church community beyond their local parish and to realize that young people across the Archdiocese are, like them, receiving this beautiful Sacrament. In addition, they and their families have a chance to see our beautiful Cathedral.

Congratulations to all those receiving this magnificent Sacrament this year!

~ Father Stephen

Saint of the Week
St. John I

In the history of the Church there are 23 popes who took the name John. This week's saint is the first pope to take that name. Born in Siena, Italy probably around the year 470, little is known about his early life. He was one of the seven deacons in Rome before being elected Pope in August of 523. Frail in health, John inherited a Church that was greatly divided by the Arian controversy, which denied the divinity of Christ. Theoderic the Great, leader in the West, who was sympathetic to the Arians, sent John to Justin I, the emperor of the East, to try to convince him to moderate his harsh treatment of those who espoused the Arian belief. He told John that if he failed in his mission, the non-Arian Christians in the West would suffer greatly. While John did accomplish the task, Theoderic was suspicious of John and had him arrested and imprisoned upon his return with the accusation that he had conspired with Emperor Justin. John died May 18, 526 in prison due to harsh punishments. Now buried in the crypt of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, John's feast day is May 18th.

May Crowning (5/22 & 5/27)

Our 1st Communion candidates will be celebrating May Crowning during the 9:30 AM Mass on Sunday, May 22nd. The 1st Communion children of St. Mary's School will be celebrating a May Crowning on Friday, May 27th at 9:15 AM.

What is May Crowning?

May Crowning is a traditional Roman Catholic ritual held during the month of May. A statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary is crowned with a garland or crown of flowers honoring Mary as "the Queen of May."

Our Mother

Note that we do not view Mary as a goddess, nor do we worship Mary; she is honored or venerated as the mother of Christ, the most important woman in our Catholic faith. Mary is offered as our Mother through pilgrimages, sacrifices, visits to church, and other customs. She gave birth to Christ. We are the Body of Christ making her our own mother; thus giving birth to us spiritually.

Share the Spirit of St. Mary's!

Please submit photos of your wonderful moments as part of the St. Mary's community for display in the Magowan Center. Any Parish life moments including First Communion, retreats, fellowship and service are welcome! Please send photos to the Parish office with your contact information for return. Note that this will be for St. Mary's use only.
