February 13, 2022

Dear Friends in Christ,

We are celebrating "World Marriage Day" this Sunday, Feb. 13th. We need to celebrate the goodness of marriages lived out well and assist married couples in our support of their vocation of love. Ask any married couple, they will tell you that it takes a lot of hard work to make a relationship work, just as we have to work at other relationships: family, friends, business, etc. Over my 34½ years of priesthood, which half of them included ministry in the Tribunal Office that dealt with divorce and possible declarations of nullity (annulments), I have coined the following motto: Continue to date each other for the rest of your lives.

The reality is, we are never done working on our marriage. St. John Paul teaches us, "Love is never something ready made, something merely given to man and woman, it is...a task which they are set. Love should be seen as something which never 'is' but is always only 'becoming'..." This is true whether you have been married for 5 years or 50+ years. We can never get to a point with our spouse when we say, "OK, now we finally have learned to love perfectly!" We never get there! And in some ways, some things never get easier.

There are helpful tools to affirm marriage at www.foryourmarriage.org/celebrate-national-marriage-week/ or www.MessyFamilyProject.org Taken from the 2nd website, here are some discussion topics and prompts to help you as a couple more clearly see the state of your relationship and identify areas you need to work on. They are just to get you started! As you prayerfully assess your unique friendship, feel free to add your own topics. Before you begin your discussion, start by honoring each other, then go on to other questions.

- I love you because....
- I feel loved when you....
- Thank you for….

□ Do we make each other a top priority?

- ♦ Do you feel I make enough time for you?
- ♦ When do we have uninterrupted time to talk?
- ♦ Are there activities we should make more room for?

□ Do we experience generous physical love?

- ♦ How do you feel most loved by me?
- ♦ What are your expectations?
- ♦ What would an ideal romantic evening be for you?

□ Do we provide each other emotional support?

- ♦ Do you feel safe with me?
- ♦ Can you talk with me about anything?
- ♦ Do I help you with challenges in your life?
- ♦ How can I support you?

□ Do we feel respected and valued when we discuss issues such as finances?

- ♦ When we talk, do you feel listened to?
- ♦ Do you think I understand your values?
- ♦ How can we work together on this?

□ Have we created a "vessel of grace" in our marriage?

- ♦ In what areas of our life can we be more in union with the Church?
- ♦ How can we pray better together?
- ♦ How can I support you in your relationship with Our Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit?

Let us pray for all marriages: healthy ones, holy ones, struggling ones, broken ones and for spouses who are grieving the loss of a spouse through death. Let us pray for continual healing in relationships since no matter how good a marriage is, healing & forgiveness are necessary. St. Paul states: "Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do (Colossians 3: 12-13)" Interesting that he says "bearing with one another" and you must forgive one another. How difficult at times, but with God's graces, it is possible!

But unfortunately the reality is that many marriages are not lived out well, and up to 50% end in divorce. Yet we are not giving up on marriage! Most people still want to marry even with such high breakup rates. But there are some who choose not to marry, but merely live together. These people are still choosing to be in relationship though. The sad reality is that many of these relationships are still breaking up. These people are still experiencing the pain of breakups and at times legal implications without the "formality" of a legalized marriage.

On the parish scene: consider giving blood for our parish blood drive this Sunday 8 am—12 Noon. Ash Wednesday's schedule is on p. 8. Take advantage of confessions readily available on Ash Wednesday. Also, mark your calendar for our parish Lenten mission: March 5-9. Msgr. Adam McCloskey will be our main mission presenter, with also Fr. Patrick Garrett to assist at the 7 pm Tuesday talk. Take advantage of the extra confession times on Monday-Wednesday, March 7-9. If you are not confirmed, see p. 7.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The one who trusts in the LORD is like a tree planted beside the waters (Jeremiah17:5-8).
Psalm — Blessed are they who hope in the Lord (Psalm 1).
Second Reading — Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep (1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20).
Gospel — Blessed are you who are poor, hungry, weeping. Woe to you who are rich, filled, laughing (Luke 6:17, 20-26).

FEELING BLESSED

Congratulations! Welcome to the Kingdom! Rejoice and leap for joy! Sounds a little like Easter, doesn't it? Well, in a very real way, it is. This Sunday, the scriptures remind us that we are blessed and beloved, especially when we have difficulties and don't feel especially blessed. Jesus reminds us that God blesses us in our trials, so we should trust in the saving power of God. We are "raised from the dead," as it were, each time we arise from our hardships. The ultimate proof of all of this is our new life in Christ, who died so that we could be free of sin, and was raised from the dead so that we might all have new life. Wouldn't that be something? A new life, in which poverty is riches and sadness is transformed into lightness of spirit? It's a topsy-turvy world, isn't it? Do you feel blessed today?

2022 DSF Appeal has begun!

New Mandatory 2022 DSF Amount $144,900

In 2021, we collected $185,919, exceeding our 2021 mandatory amount of $138,000. Thank you for such generosity.

100% of the excess of $47,919 is being returned to the parish.

For 2020 & 2021, the Archdiocese made a decision to return 100% of any excess since parishes were hurting financially due to Covid. But in 2022, any excess beyond the mandatory amount will return to the previous policy: 50% back to the parish; 50% stays at the Archdiocese to aid poor parishes, normally with unexpected expenses they cannot afford (new AC or roof, etc.).

Since 2016, our parish mandatory DSF amount has remained the same at $138,000 due to the Ignite campaign & then due to Covid. This year (2022) is the 1st time there has been an increase.

New Mandatory 2022 DSF Amount is $144,900.

Make sure our parish, St. Maximilian Kolbe, is written on your pledge card, not any other parish name. If so, write in our parish name.

SIGNIFICANCE of BOWING

A bow signifies reverence & honor shown to the names or event being mentioned. We are to do the following:
1) A bow *of the head is made when the three Divine Persons (the Trinity) are named together and at the names of Jesus, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Saint in whose honor Mass is being celebrated.
2) A bow *of the body (a profound bow) is made during the Creed with the words "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man." —General Instruction to the Roman Missal, #275

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

O God, who teach us that you abide in hearts that are just and true, grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace
as to become a dwelling pleasing to you.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflection question:
How can I allow God's grace to fashion me into a pleasing dwelling for the Lord?

Make a commitment to learn the Catholic Faith more fully!

Ever wonder what students learn in CCE? The Cardinal has laid out 4 "Big Ideas" for children to learn.

- Who is Jesus Christ?
- How do we get to know and love Jesus Christ?
- How does Jesus Christ teach us to live a moral life?
  How are we called to be missionary disciples of Jesus Christ?

We are currently on Big Idea #2!
Try answering these questions for yourself to see if God might be calling you to learn more.

"Never be afraid of loving Mary too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did."

Reality Check: The Extreme Campaign Against the Hyde Amendment
(4th question in a series)

Beginning in 1976, the Hyde amendment and similar measures have prevented the federal government from forcing pro-life Americans to support abortion with their tax dollars. Now the 44-year-long bipartisan consensus on this issue is under attack. Pro-abortion groups are campaigning to rescind Hyde, and to make this policy reversal permanent through the so-called "EACH Woman" Act (Equal Access to Abortion Coverage in Health Insurance Act, S. 758/H.R. 1692). This extreme measure would require every federal health program to cover, and every federal health facility to provide, elective abortions. It would even nullify state and local policies against abortion coverage, rescinding the compromise policy agreed to by President Obama and congressional Democrats in the Affordable Care Act of 2010 (42 USC §18023). This campaign uses claims developed by public relations strategists to overcome widespread public objections to publicly funded abortion. Here are those claims with a response.

Does Hyde discriminate against women of color, because they are disproportionately poor? No, for the same reason that it does not discriminate against the poor. Nonwhite Americans, for example, say abortion is morally wrong by a margin of 46% to 45% (compared to a margin of 46% to 44% for whites). Yet people of color are especially targeted by the abortion industry, and the challenges they face are exploited by abortion advocates to promote public funding. Without federal funding of abortion, the abortion rate among non-Hispanic black women (abortions per 1000 women of reproductive age) is almost four times that of non-Hispanic white women; so is their abortion ratio (abortions per 1000 live births). It is the effort to increase this tragic disparity further, by promoting abortion in a population disproportionately made up of black Americans, that could be seen as racist. Hundreds of Planned Parenthood's own supporters and current and former employees have said that "Planned Parenthood was founded by a racist, white woman" and remains guilty of systemic racism. Furthermore, Planned Parenthood operates the largest chain of abortion centers in the United States and disproportionately locates them in, or near, minority neighborhoods.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

That we have the strength and courage to joyfully proclaim our faith, especially in uncomfortable situations.

"Blessed are you when people hate you,…exclude and insult you, and denounce your name…on account of the Son of Man." (Luke 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

There will be a 2nd collection next weekend; the Black & Indian Missions Collection. Please be generous.
