As a Catholic parent, I understand the following:

--To rear this child in the Catholic faith by taking him/her to Sunday Mass regularly & other holy days, provide prayer & religious education at home & at the parish, ensure this child receives 1st Penance, 1st Holy Communion & Confirmation.

--A Catholic godparent (sponsor) must meet all the universal Church requirements to serve in that role.

--You may have only 1 Catholic godparent (sponsor) but no more than two: 1 Catholic godfather & 1 Catholic godmother.

--Especially when 1 parent is a Catholic & the other parent is a non-Catholic, a validly baptized non-Catholic (baptized in name of the Father, of the Son & of the Holy Spirit) can serve as a Christian witness, provided there is 1 Catholic godparent.

--If a Catholic does not meet all the universal Church requirements to serve as a godparent, a Catholic may not serve as a Christian Witness which is reserved to only a baptized non-Catholic (never was baptized or reared as or became a Catholic).

--Godparents / Christian Witness are encouraged but not required to attend the Baptism prep.
