

SCRIPTURE READINGS

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 8:23—9:3

The prophet Isaiah describes the anguish of a conquered people, but he promises that they will triumph and will see a great light as on the “day of Midian.”

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:10—13, 17

Paul speaks to the Corinthians with both anger and indignation because they are quarreling among themselves as to whom they should show allegiance. Some wish to follow Paul; some, Peter; others Apollos; others, Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

Jesus begins his mission by going to Capernaum, fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah. He selects Peter, Andrew, James and John as his disciples, inviting them to be “fishers of men.”

Bringing the Gospel Home

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 4:12-23

Reflection for Families: There are few people in the world who understand the immediacy of today's Gospel like a parent does! The demands of the day are genuinely important, from the first stirrings of the morning, into the commitment-filled day, to the evening and bedtime routine. A huge part of our day requires a "stop-on-a-dime" reaction from us. Many things we "stop-on-a-dime" for are important, but have we thought today how the urgency of our day-to-day decisions compares to the urgency of Jesus calling his disciples? With what urgency do we call our children to discipleship? How do they recognize us as disciples of Jesus?

Bringing the Gospel into your Family: Following the evening meal or when your family gathers for bedtime prayers, share one thing about your day that indicates you are a "fisher of people." Encourage all members of the family to think about how they are disciples of Jesus – how they carry the Good News into the neighborhood, their school, or their work.

Discussion Starters

1. Other people (especially my family members) know that I follow Jesus when ...
2. One of the most important reasons I follow Jesus today is because...
3. Like the fisherman, one thing I find uncertain about following Jesus is...

Adult Faith Formation

Bishop Robert Barron's SEVEN DEADLY SINS AND SEVEN LIVELY VIRTUES is the perfect Lenten experience!

Pride, envy, anger, sloth, greed, gluttony and lust: these "seven deadly sins" are patterns of dysfunction that keep us separated from God and ultimately lead to unhappiness. Join us as we embark on Fr. Robert Barron's exploration of these seven sinful patterns and also learn how practicing countervailing virtues can break the cycle of sin.

On February 7th and 8th, our parish will begin the Seven Deadly Sins and Seven Lively Virtues program. This 8 week study program will be offered on two separate days and times:

Tuesdays from 9:30 – 11:00 a.m.
Or, Wednesdays from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Pre-registration is required. For fullest participation, a purchased workbook ($15.00) is recommended.

To preview this 8-week study, you can visit:

FEAST OF EPIPHANY: On January 8th, the PREP students gathered with Fr. Grasing in the Church to learn about the Church's liturgical year, specifically the Christmas season, which culminated with the Feast of Epiphany. They all received stars to remind them of the Star of Bethlehem that led the Magi to the baby Jesus, and also remind us that Jesus is the light of the world. Following the lesson, everyone returned to the Parish Hall for some "King's Cake", cookies, and hot chocolate.

CONGRATULATIONS to Sean Gallo, Liam Gallo and Elena Portillo, who recently received the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. We ask you to keep these children in your prayers as they continue their faith journey with preparation for reception of Holy Eucharist in the spring.

SAINTS OF JANUARY

FRANCIS DE SALES

Feast Day: January 24

Canonized: April 19, 1665

Beatified: January 8, 1662

There is a popular saying you may have heard: "You catch more flies with honey than with vinegar." This means that if you want people to agree with you or help you, being nice to them is better than being mean or unfriendly. The person who first said that lived more than 400 years ago, and he was a very persuasive speaker – and a saint.

Francis de Sales was born in France in 1567 to a noble family. His father sent him to the best schools, and when he was 20, he decided to become a priest. Despite his wealthy background, Francis always thought it was more important to serve God than to have money or power. His father tried to persuade him to marry, but Francis was instead ordained at the age of 26.

He quickly earned a reputation for being a kind and understanding man and an excellent speaker who attracted people to the Catholic faith. Many people in his diocese, which was partly in France and partly in Switzerland, followed the teachings of John Calvin, since at one time the Catholic faith had been outlawed in the region. Francis won many of them back. He taught religion to children and helped prepare men to be ordained priests. He wrote several books and helped St. Jane Francis de Chantal to found a religious order of women, the Order of the Visitation of Holy Mary, in 1610.

Francis died in 1622 and was canonized in 1664 by Pope Alexander VII. He was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1877. He is a patron of writers and journalists because he used his writing to teach people about faith.
