14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel describes what many believe to have been the typical pattern of Jesus' ministry: teaching in the synagogue followed by acts of healing. In his hometown of Nazareth, the people are amazed by what they hear, but they also cannot understand how someone they know so well might move them so effectively. This passage also tells us that Jesus is held back from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. In this detail we find a description of the very human side of Jesus.

For better or worse, our family plays a very important role in shaping and forming our identity. In the family we discover who we are and who God calls us to be. But sometimes the influences from outside our family can make us unrecognizable to those who know us best. These outside influences can lead us away from God, or they can lead us toward a deeper relationship with God. We hope that through our family life we will be encouraged to filter the many influences on our lives through the lens of faith so that we will become the person that God calls us to be.

This week think about the people and events that have had the most influence from within your family. Acknowledge that many of these people and events are positive influences, helping us be better people and leading us to a deeper relationship with God. Also acknowledge, however, that there are negative influences in our lives that work at pulling us away from God. Remember that we are the teachers. We are the taught. We are the frustrated. Sometimes we are the frustrating as well. Remember that Jesus could not perform many miracles in Nazareth, because of their lack of faith. I often wonder what they missed out on. Then I wonder what we are missing out on because of the lack of our faith. May we use the gifts God has given us to choose good examples to follow. May we be the example for others to follow. May we be builders rather than destroyers. Have a good week!

Peace,
Fr. Chris

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the sixteenth century, the Council of Trent, which was otherwise devoted to liturgical uniformity, was very tolerant of age-old marriage customs. The Council singled out "praiseworthy" customs and hoped they would be retained. The Second Vatican Council likewise asked for a careful evaluation of customs, admitting that not everything about wedding practice is "praiseworthy." In our revised liturgy, all of the prayers consistently stress the equality of the partners. Some familiar customs do not match this insight. Often, the groom remains hidden in a sacristy while the bride, accompanied only by her father, enters with her attendants. This is hardly equality, especially if it appears that her father is "giving her away" to her husband. This is a familiar enough scene, but increasingly couples are called to a different practice. Symbols and signs carry and communicate meaning. The challenge for couples today is to match the meaning to the symbol, and for the couple to be authentic in all they do and say on the day of their wedding. Having bride and groom both take part fully and equally in the entrance procession is exactly the kind of "praiseworthy" practice we've been looking for!

We are often asked to provide affidavits for Baptismal and Confirmation Sponsors. We can only do this if a person is a registered, active and contributing member.
