Thank you and Goodbye

It seems like just yesterday that I arrived at St. Justin. At the same time, ten years have passed since I became your pastor. As you know Bishop Cantu has appointed me the pastor of the parish of Church of the Transfiguration in San Jose. So the time has come for me to say goodbye.

I cannot possibly adequately express my appreciation and gratitude to all of you for the time I have shared with you. It has been a true honor and privilege to work with Laura, Maria, Nancy and Joe. They have helped me in numerous ways that made my job all that easier. They were a blessing to work with.

I have grown in my faith and understanding through my worship, fellowship and service with all of you. I am a better person and a better priest because of you and the goodness you have shown me. Thank you for your support, and your well wishes. Thank you for believing as I did, and still do, that this is an amazing parish, with the most wonderful people. Thank you for allowing me to be a small part of that.

Thanks to Fr Gerald and his never ending can do spirit. He has been a blessing in my life and priesthood. He has always been source of knowledge, friendship and encouragement. I will miss our interactions and discussions. I have found a true friend. A true inspiration. He certainly helped me become a better person and a better priest. I will be forever grateful for our time together.

Please know that I have been overwhelmed with your kind words, your hundreds of letters, notes, emails and gifts. Your generosity is gratefully appreciated. There is no way I can thank each of you individually, so please let this serve as my thanks – Thank You!

As I move on to the next chapter in my life, there is of course some sadness. I will miss the journey we have all been a part of. Be assured that you will be remembered in my prayers. I ask that you please remember me in your prayers as I begin my new assignment and face new challenges and a new time of growth. I am not going far so hopefully we will see each other occasionally.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You...It has been an honor and privilege. You will always hold a special place in my heart!

Peace,
Fr. Chris

We pray for those who are ill or suffering from loneliness, sadness, or depression. We pray for those who care for them. We pray for our deceased family and friends. We pray for our men and women who are serving in the military.

This week we pray especially for those who are ill or preparing for surgery:

Kane David Carlin, Susy Carter, Diane Cribari, Ursula Duncan, Rodolfo Feliciano, Rose Gackstetter, Curtis Hambrick, Sr. , Clorinda Hite, Gabriella Ip, Lori Kennard, Balwant Khaira, Rick Kimble, Efrain Linares, John McLachlan, Shirley McDonell, Kevin Marinshaw, Angelina Medina, Caridad Mendoza, Deacon Greg Ortiz, Jr., Janet Osbourne, Dorothy Rosa, Tony Rosa, Otto Rosales, Carl Wright, Maria Vergano.

and for those who have died this week.

Saint of the week

Venerable Antonietta Meo, born in Rome, died of bone cancer at just 6 years old. In her short life she wrote hundreds of little letters to Jesus and Mary displaying a deep spiritual maturity and had a profound understanding of the redemptive value of suffering.

Prayer for Our Government

Dear Lord,
Guide and direct those who serve this country in positions of leadership and power. Give them Your wisdom and clarity as they make decisions for our nation.
Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Talitha koum. Girl, arise! Jesus said this to the dead daughter of the synagogue official, and she obeyed. Listen for his voice when you are weighed down, burdened with doubt or misery, for he says it to you, too. Arise!

Observances for the week of June 30, 2024

Sunday: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Monday: St. Junipero Serra, Priest

Wednesday: St. Thomas, Apostle

Thursday: Independence Day

Friday: St. Anthony Zaccaria, Priest;
St. Elizabeth of Portugal

Saturday: St. Maria Goretti, Virgin and Martyr

Next Sunday: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Double Gratitude and Appreciation

The Gospel today talks about the woman suffering from hemorrhage and the synagogue official who lost his daughter, who both in one fell swoop were taken care of by Jesus. None of the good deeds of Jesus canceled the other. And both we have satisfactorily taken care of. The woman came out in fear and trembling, thanking Jesus, and Jarius was steadfast even when the people around were laughing at Jesus.

On June 9th the community celebrated the customary St. Justin's feast day, but Fr. Chris and I were privileged to be included in the plans. First, to say farewell to Fr. Chris after ten years of pastoral work in the community and secondly, to celebrate my doctorate graduation after 11 years of scholarly work. The event took us by surprise with the amount of love showered on us by the parishioners and friends of the parish. I stood for over two and a half hours to take pictures. I tell you my knees and ankles cannot forget that day in haste. The beaming smiles and wonderful words from the community burned into our hearts the loveliness of the event, for which both of us are eternally grateful.

We recorded also a tremendous success on the soccer appeal. We sold off our tickets and got some from St. Clare parish too. The support for the seminarians was audible to the deaf and visible to the blind. Fr. Eric, the Director of Vocations, called me privately during the practice and said that I should thank the St. Justin community for the support they have received from the parish since 2018 when this campaign kicked off. I am always grateful for all your support. Those who would like to know the scoreline of the game should watch ESPN, FOX SPORTS, or CNN Sports. It was carried live.

Finally, thanks for all the support and love accorded Fr. Chris and me. We wish Fr. Chris the best in his new assignment. For those of us staying back, we will continue the good job to fulfill what St Paul said to the Corinthian church today in the second reading, "Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less." We are always ready to help one another which is the trademark of the Christian community in the early Church, and in our parish, St. Justin. Remain blessed.
