Spirituality

I am sure most of us, at one point or another, have heard the word “spirituality” mentioned. You might have heard it in a homily, where it may have been asked, “what is your spirituality?” Or someone might have made a comment, “well you are more Franciscan or more Ignatian in your spirituality?” When we shop for books, there is a whole section about spirituality. So, for us, as Catholics, what is spirituality?

First, when we speak about Catholic spirituality, we must point out where it comes from. All aspects of our faith have as their source God, Himself. Everything, including our spirituality, comes from God, and then also ultimately leads to God. So, when we seek to grow in holiness, or we seek to have a deeper faith life, we must turn to God and ask Him to shower those graces upon us, so that ultimately those graces lead us back to Him. Seeking to grow in holiness, or having a deeper faith life, certainly involves effort on our part, but it is important to remember that we must be seeking that holiness and deeper faith only because we want to have our lives point to God. Self-help, which many times is lumped into spirituality, involves doing something on our own, through our own efforts, to become happier and more complete people. While this is good up to a point, it should never detract from the ultimate goal of all self-help, to become closer to God. We know that we are to seek God in this life, so that we can be with Him in the next.

So, the next question then is, how is spirituality formed? Coming from God, our spirituality ultimately involves our story - our journey. Each of us carve a different path to God, because each of us has taken different roads to get where we are in our lives today. These roads have been lined with family influences and stories, choices we have made (both good and bad), people who have come into and out of our lives, among other things. So, to begin to examine how your own spirituality has been formed, it is often beneficial to look at your story, and then to begin to reflect on where God might have been present at those moments.

Our Catholic faith has different spiritual influences that form our spirituality. At any given time in our lives we might move from one influence to another. We might also stay within one area as well. Some examples of Catholic spirituality might be:

Thomistic - the spirituality of the intellect with an emphasis on devotions, rosary, Adoration, repetitive prayer.

Ignatian - the spirituality of the Ascetics with a focus on contemplation, poetry, psalms, prayer of doing, retreats.

Franciscan - the spirituality of service with a focus on nature, meditations, spontaneous prayer, popular music.

Augustinian - the spirituality of devotion with a focus on symbols, friendship, scriptural reflections, journaling.

Carmelite - the spirituality of the lived experience, not just the intellect, with an emphasis on conversation with God, mental prayer, and the mystical tradition of the Church.

All of these, and many more, often contain elements of each other and serve as a great starting point for discovery of your own spiritual story.

So, our challenge is to examine our own story, our own path. We can do this through prayer, through reading about the founders and disciples of each of these traditions, and by exploring our spirituality through meeting with a spiritual director. Ultimately, we should always remember how our spiritual journey points us to God and a deeper relationship with Him. The last line of the Gospel today speaks about how we must be rich in what matters to God. We come to that richness by examining our own spiritual path, seeing our God at work in our lives, and then orienting our lives to point back to Him.

Deacon Jim

MFL: Denotes Mass for the Living

Rest in Peace

Our prayers and sympathy to the families of Carmina Avila,
and the recently departed.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

In Our Prayers

We encourage you to call with the names of family members who are ill and you wish to have remembered in prayer. They will be mentioned in the Petitions in the Sunday Liturgy for one week and then published in the weekly bulletin. In order to respect everyone's privacy, these names must be given by a family member. Continuing prayer for our loved ones is very important for all involved. Therefore, we ask that you call the parish office and update us on your family member, so that we may maintain a current and meaningful list.

Being at peace with the past is crucial for living in the present. This summer, clear out material items infused with memories that may be unhealthy for your marriage.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy This Monday

Prince of Peace offers an opportunity for communal prayer to all who desire to come together to pray for the sick and dying. We hope to create a sanctuary of prayer for all those who find themselves helpless when sickness touches them or their family and friends. In many cases we cannot do much, however, we can pray for our sick and dying as well as for each other. Please join us on Monday, August 5th at 8:15 p.m. The Chaplet will precede Benediction. The Rosary Prayer group invites everyone to come pray the Rosary with us every Monday at 7:00 pm. The Rosary is led by a different ministry each week.

Have You Thought About RCIA?

Have you thought about becoming a Catholic? Are you a Catholic who has never moved beyond the Sacrament of Baptism? Do you know others who have mentioned an interest in learning about the Catholic religion, those never baptized or baptized in a different Christian religion? Or, do you know someone who was baptized Catholic but never received further instruction to receive First Communion and Confirmation? RCIA is here for all of you!

This year's RCIA (Rite of Christian Initation of Adults) formation group will begin meeting on September 3, 2019. Meeting on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. until about 9:00 p.m., people who meet the conditions mentioned in the questions above come together to learn about the Catholic religion in an adult learning environment. The class format allows and promotes interaction between the presenter and the participants, and asking questions is strongly encouraged.

No commitment to become a member of the Catholic faith is required of those who attend until well into the process. All are welcome to come and see what the RCIA is all about and to join the group's leader, Deacon Tim Leonard, on this journey of faith discernment. Please contact Deacon Tim at (847) 265-0686 if you have an interest in exploring the Catholic faith or if you would like additional information. He's waiting to hear from YOU!

Vacation Bible Camp 2019

We enjoyed a week of projects, crafts and games as we learned about the Mysteries of the Rosary.

Our campers made goody bags for a group home, bookmarks for our Bible study groups, and collected over 900 diapers and 4500 wipes for a family resource center. Thank you campers and families!

The week would not have been possible without our enthusiastic team of volunteers who gave so generously of their time and talents.

Thank you to Fr. Gerald and the parish staff for their support.

Thank you to Fr. John, Deacon Larry and Deacon Mark for leading us in prayer and joining in the fun!

Thank you to Deacon James for teaching us about Adoration.

See you next summer!

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." (Luke 12:15)

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle and become more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."

Please help us welcome these newest members of our parish who were baptized in July.

New and Current Parish Members:

Prince of Peace staff and the Communications Ministry frequently videotape or photograph participants enjoying programs, Masses and other events at our facility. These photographs are taken for use in parish publications, flyers, our website, brochures and future materials. All photos and videos taken on Prince of Peace property are for parish use and become the sole property of the parish. If you or a member of your family does not wish to be photographed, please contact the parish office.

Please inform the parish office of any additions to your family, changes in member status or address changes. All Catholic adults, 18 years old and no longer in school, who live within the parish area should register in their own name. Active and supporting membership includes offering one's time, talent and treasure to assist in promoting the Gospel and the mission of Prince of Peace Parish. Please help us maintain our parish records by registering or advising us of changes as soon as possible.

Welcome to Prince of Peace! We are glad you are here!
