Sacrament of Baptism

Our Baptismal Ministry is pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. Please contact the parish office at least two months prior to your preferred Baptism date to schedule a preparation class. We encourage attendance at this class well before the baby's birth. The class is usually offered the last Monday evening of each month. Baptisms are scheduled on Sundays at 1:00 p.m.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Saturday from 4:00pm—4:30pm or by appointment.

Sacraments of Initiation

Adults interested in receiving the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) may call the Director of our RCIA program, Deacon Tim Leonard.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish office at least six months prior to your wedding to set a date and to begin your marriage preparation and required paper work.

Home or Hospital Visitation

Anyone who cannot attend Mass because of age or illness, and would like to receive the Eucharist at home, should call the parish office to arrange a visit. Likewise, if you are being admitted to the hospital, and would like a visit, please call. Due to confidentiality reasons, hospitals no longer call the parish to inform us when parishioners are admitted.

From the Pastor's Desk

Do you believe, really believe, in life after death? Do you believe, really believe, that there is a heaven and a hell?

In both the first reading from the Old Testament, and in the Gospel, we have tremendous testimony of the existence of life after death, and of heaven and hell. The belief of the young men in the first reading was so strong that they were willing to endure torture and death. They were confident that a happier life awaited them, if they were loyal to God and obeyed His commandments. They even amazed their torturers with their faith and willingness to endure death for their beliefs.

In the Gospel, Jesus gives us one of the best glimpses of life after death. He says that we will become like angels, spiritual beings, in complete happiness with God. He again reminds us in a very subtle way, actually with saying it, that the ways of God are not human ways. He hints that we should not place human understandings on the divine. Our relationship in heaven will be with God, and only because we are one with God, we will be united with each other. This is a rather difficult theological point, but we need only accept the word of Jesus on it.

We know that if we keep faith, if we follow Christ, the ultimate victory will be ours. We are a people of hope. Hope in the promise of a God who loves us so very much that He took on our humanity and our sinfulness and purchased our redemption by dying on a cross. If that is not a testimony to His love and concern for us, what is? It was the ultimate act, in a human context, to prove to us His love.

What must we do to deserve, even in a small way, this love and promise of everlasting happiness with God? Jesus put it in very simply when He said, "Love God with your whole being and love your neighbor as yourself." Keep these commandments and you will have your reward in heaven. Jesus promises it. But it's not just a one way contract. Jesus promises life, but we have to keep our end of the agreement. We have to try to live a life deserving of that life everlasting. We have to keep faith, we have to be a people of hope, and we have to live this life so as to encourage others to live the life Christ wants us to live.

I wish you an enjoyable weekend and a truly blest and faith-filled week.

Fr. Gerald Walsh

"The Book of Life"

The month of November has been dedicated to the Holy Souls. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life. Prince of Peace has a custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which community members and visitors write the names of their beloved dead. This book was inspired by the ancient practice of recording the dates of the deaths of loved ones in a necrology, a public record or registry of death. This practice provides the living with an opportunity for healing and consolation in the face of grief.

The Book of Life will be displayed until the end of November. It is left open for people to write the names of their deceased loved ones and for others to read the names, remember, and pray for the repose of their souls. Remembering all of these men and women who have gone before us, "marked with the sign of faith," helps us better understand and appreciate our faith in Christ, our risen Lord, who conquers sin and death and brings new life to all. The Book of Life is located next to our statue of the Prince of Peace.

In Our Prayers

We encourage you to call with the names of family members who are ill and you wish to have remembered in prayer. They will be mentioned in the Petitions in the Sunday Liturgy for one week and then published in the weekly bulletin. In order to respect everyone's privacy, these names must be given by a family member. Continuing prayer for our loved ones is very important for all involved. Therefore, we ask that you call the parish office and update us on your family member, so that we may maintain a current and meaningful list.

MICHELANGELO

A PIVOTAL PLAYER

Who has seen the Pieta' and not been moved by Mary's offering of her crucified Son for our salvation? We have viewed the Sistine Chapel and been left in awe of the artistry that is exhibited in its beauty. Michelangelo was responsible for these and many other works of art that has added to our understanding of our Faith.

Please join me on Tuesday, November 12, at either 9am or 7pm for a discussion of this great artist and Pivotal Player in Catholicism. We will view the Bishop Barron presentation and then discuss how Michelangelo's work is important not only to the Church, but also to our lives. We will meet in the Cenacle which is one block east of the church on Grand Avenue.

I will also be praying Morning Hours at 8:40am and Evening Hours at 6:40pm if you would like to join me for this important Liturgy of the Church. The prayer guides needed for these prayers will be provided. Please consider joining me for this or any of the other studies that are being offered.

Blessings,
Deacon Mark

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." (2 Thessalonians 2:16-17)

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

Thank You from Catholic Charities

Dear Fr. Gerald,

Thank you and your parishioners so much for having a food drive at Prince of Peace Parish and for your generous donations totaling $2,667.00 in support of our Lake County Food Pantry's holiday meal program.

The number one reason people seek help from Catholic Charities is because they are hungry. And people are hungry every day of the year. Our doors are open to them. In times of crisis or suffering it is a great comfort to have somewhere to go for help.

Your gift not only provides a wider variety of nutritious food to people who are in great need, but also encouragement, information and referrals to resources and benefits that help them regain self-sufficiency. When an immediate need for food is met, there is breathing room and renewed strength to face to other challenges.

Thank you for bringing compassion and joy into the lives of others. May you also be blessed with love and happiness.

Sincerely,

Kathleen A. Donahue-Coia
Acting Administrator, President & CEO
