From the Pastor's Desk

The Feast of the Epiphany is the oldest in the Liturgical Calendar, after Easter and Pentecost, and Epiphany was celebrated long before even Christmas itself came to be regarded as a feast. The word Epiphany literally means “manifestation” and refers to the appearance or making known of Christ. Of course, in the beginning, the feast was about the several manifestations of Christ: His first coming into the world, His being made known to the Shepherds and His manifestation to the Wise Men from the East. It even included the Father announcing who He was at His Baptism by John, as well as the demonstration of His power in His First Miracle at the Marriage Feast of Cana.

But as the Feast of Christmas, and the other feasts, gradually came to be separated over time, the Epiphany centered on the manifestation of Christ to the Magi — in other words, to the Gentiles.

The first sections of the Gospels of Matthew and Luke about the early life of Christ are known as the Infancy Narratives, and they have been the subjects of a lot of scholarship over the last twenty years. One of the results of all this research is that we now realize that these stories can be seen as “Gospels in Miniature” because they contain the most important elements of what comes after. They are like the overture to a great musical piece in which the various motifs are brought to our attention.

Here, in this story of the coming of the Wise Men, we see clearly a very important element of Christ’s Mission right from the start, namely, His mission to the Gentiles. The People of Israel were rightly known as the Chosen People because they were the group to whom God chose to gradually reveal Himself in various ways over the centuries. The history of their relationship with God is one of a gradual education, a slow revelation of God’s true nature over the centuries, and a growing understanding by the people of God’s expectations for them.

They were also the race among whom Christ was born, even if only to be ultimately rejected. This rejection is, of course, turned to the greatest possible advantage for the whole of humankind through the great act of salvation. The rejection of Christ by Israel becomes the opportunity for Christ to be revealed to all the nations, and so, ultimately, to us today.

All this is prefigured by the visit of the Wise Men, who themselves are, in a sense, foretold in the Old Testament scriptures. Look at today’s first reading for example: “The nations come to your light and kings to your dawning brightness.” It was always in the understanding of the People of Israel that God had chosen them to receive His special revelation, but that, in due time, all nations would bow down before the one true God. But this was not understood as happening right away; it was rather something that would occur when the Messiah ultimately came into His Kingdom.

This Feast of the Epiphany achieved great importance early on in the history of the Church, surely because the many converts from paganism saw in the story of the wise men their own story. These wise men were guided by a star. They were led by God to the stable in Bethlehem where they offered the Christ Child their gifts and paid Him homage.

The early converts to Christianity, like any convert today, realized that they, too, were guided by God and led on a journey of faith and brought to belief in Christ. When they finally encounter Him, they place all they have at His disposal, and worship Him as the Son of God, and the one true Savior of the World. They may not be rich like those Magi, but they know that they have found the greatest treasure anyone could possess — belief in Jesus Christ.

Each one of us has been led by a star. Each one of us has been brought by God to the assent of faith. It may have been because we searched as adults and gradually found faith, but it could also be because we were brought up as Christians by our parents; that in our earliest childhood we came to a knowledge and love of God. Make no mistake about it, we were all converts once. The gradual realization by a child of what faith in Christ actually means is no less of a conversion than that of an adult in the prime of life. It is just as genuine, just as deep, just as life changing.

Sometimes it is in our childhood that we see things most clearly. As we grow older we do not always grow wiser; quite often the preoccupations of raising children, maintaining our relationships and paying a mortgage get in the way and cloud our vision. What started off as certainly and firmness of faith can, with the change of life, easily fade away into disinterest. What we need then is re-conversion, what we need to do is to look for that star once more.

Let us think today about those Wise Men and about how wise they were. They let God lead them. And their journey was not merely a journey by land, but it was also a journey of faith. And God revealed Himself to them in the person of the Child Jesus. In one way or another, the same thing has happened to each one of us. God leads us on a journey of faith, and He reveals Himself to us in the person of Jesus Christ.

But this doesn't just happen once. No, it happens again and again in our lives. There are a whole series of Epiphanies awaiting us if we only co-operate with God and let Him lead us.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy This Monday

Prince of Peace offers an opportunity for communal prayer to all who desire to come together to pray for the sick and dying. We hope to create a sanctuary of prayer for all those who find themselves helpless when sickness touches them or their family and friends. In many cases we cannot do much, however, we can pray for our sick and dying as well as for each other. Please join us on Monday, January 6th at 8:15 p.m. The Chaplet will precede Benediction. The Rosary Prayer group invites everyone to come pray the Rosary with us every Monday at 7:00 pm. The Rosary is led by a different ministry each week.

Whoever gives to the poor shall not want (Proverbs 28:27)

Our next food drive will take place the weekends of January 11-12 and January 18-19 to benefit our Sharing Parish, Most Blessed Trinity's Food Pantry. Collection baskets will be located in the gathering space, by the meeting room hallway, to drop off non-perishable food items and toiletries before Mass.

Most needed items include: peanut butter (small jars), jelly, canned soup, canned tuna or chicken, cereal, rice (1 lb bags), small bottles of cooking oil. Basic items are always welcome: canned fruits & vegetables, box dinners (Hamburger Helper, etc.), boxed macaroni & cheese.

Interested in helping? Sorting food, checking expiration dates, boxing up food or delivering the final boxes to Holy Family Food Pantry? Contact Elizabeth Pitel at pitel-sosa@sbcglobal.net for more info.

Catholic Funerals

By Deacon Jim

We will be holding a Workshop on Catholic Funerals on Saturday, January 11, 2020 from 9:30am - 11:30am here at the parish. At the workshop we will be discussing the funeral rites, talking about Church guidelines, how our parish can help you with your planning, and give everyone an opportunity to ask any questions you may have regarding Catholic Funerals. We will also have representatives here from Ringa Funeral Home to answer any questions you might have for them. Please plan on joining us.

One of the most humbling and sacred ministries we perform as clergy is accompanying people in their final illnesses, many times through their death, and then comforting and ministering to their families and friends during the funeral rites of the Church. I personally feel blessed to be with them during this time, but am also grateful that the Church has provided us with such a rich and hope-filled rite to assist us in this act of comfort and commendation. The time of a funeral is certainly difficult and sad for any family, but it is through the treasure of the Funeral Liturgy that those who are left to mourn can be comforted as their loved one is commended to God.

The Church provides this comfort because every funeral Mass is a Mass of Resurrection. This is because Christ Himself has overcome death through His Resurrection. We pray with the family and friends during the vigil or wake, we stand together at the funeral Mass with Jesus, who has His arm around us ready to comfort us, and finally, we commit their body to the grave, tomb, or crematorium, giving their earthly body back to God, but always keeping their memory alive in our minds and hearts. So, the funeral rites are not only for the one who has died, but also for the living. This is why it is essential when a Catholic dies that the funeral rites should be celebrated.

The life of faith for every Christian begins at Baptism and is nourished, for Catholics, around the table of the Eucharist. It is during the Funeral Liturgy that we pray for the person who has died, whose life of faith has ended, and pray that Christ is ready to welcome them, even though they might be gone from our sight. But we pray for ourselves, too, and for all who mourn, that Christ will one day welcome us, as well, into His presence. This coming together as community provides a source of strength. While the wake can provide time to share memories about the person who has died, coming together in church to pray together allows us to remember that our loved one has gone to God. We ask God, as a community, to now care for the soul of our loved one and to ease the grief we feel.

To register, please contact Deacon Jim at the parish office. Walk-ins are accepted as well.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

The January Prayer Shawl Ministry meetings are scheduled for:

Tuesdays, January 7 & 21 at 1:00pm

If you already know how to knit and/or crochet or would like to learn how, we would love to have you join us for knitting/crocheting, wonderful conversation and friendship. We also work on making mats for the homeless from plastic shopping bags. If you know of anyone who could benefit from a prayer shawl, please contact Deacon Jim at the parish office or Jean Coon at 847-341-9334.

Grace Filled Women

The next meeting of Grace Filled Women is Saturday, January 18th at 9:00am, starting with a Communion Service in the church. Our topic this month is "What Would Jesus Do?" (our Winter Session). This is a question & answer time led by Deacons Mark Weiss and Jim Minor. What a perfect way to begin the new year by pursuing answers to our faith questions in a reflective, prayerful manner.

In Our Prayers

We encourage you to call with the names of family members who are ill and you wish to have remembered in prayer. They will be mentioned in the Petitions in the Sunday Liturgy for one week and then published in the weekly bulletin. In order to respect everyone's privacy, these names must be given by a family member. Continuing prayer for our loved ones is very important for all involved. Therefore, we ask that you call the parish office and update us on your family member, so that we may maintain a current and meaningful list.

Epiphany Home Blessing

Using a piece of chalk, write above your doorway: 20 + C + M + B + 20.

2020 for the year; C, M, B for the 3 Magi - Caspar, Malchior and Balthasar - and for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for "May Christ bless this house."

As you are writing, pray the following prayer:

May all who come to our home this year rejoice to find Christ living among us, and may we seek and serve, in everyone we meet, that same Jesus who is Lord, forever and ever, Amen.

Our prayers and sympathy to the families of Janet Buchholz, and the recently departed.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

Catholic Social Teaching (CST) 101

How do we view our occupations and the work of others? When it comes to our interactions with other workers do we value their work? Do we stratify occupations and treat people according to our beliefs? Please join me at the Cenacle on Monday, January 20 at 9:00am or Tuesday, January 21 at 7:00pm to discuss these questions.

You are also invited to join me for Morning Prayer on the 20th or Evening Prayer on the 21st. We will begin the prayers 20 minutes prior to the beginning of the CST 101 session.

May God bless you and your families,
Deacon Mark

Weekend Stewardship Collection

For the weekend of December 21-22, 2019

Total Envelopes	$11,965.16
Loose	$ 1,595.50
Electronic Giving	$ 5,469.50
TOTAL COLLECTION	$19,030.16

“Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” (Matthew 2:11)

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

Christmas Collection: $30,063.92

2019 Tax Letter

If you wish to have a letter indicating your financial support of Prince of Peace during 2019, please contact the parish office at (847) 356-7915 or email parishoffice@princeofpeacecatholicchurch.org.

Have You Considered Electronic Giving?

We offer Electronic Giving for your Sunday Stewardship contributions, either by direct debit from your bank account or credit card, on a monthly or weekly basis. A form is available on our parish website or in the gathering space kiosk. After signing up, never worry about forgetting your envelope again! It also continues your support to Prince of Peace when you are out of town or on vacation.

There are cards available on the credenza in the gathering space that say, “I Support the Parish through Electronic Giving.” You can pick one up before Mass and place it in the collection basket instead of your envelope.

Parishioners who donate electronically to the Sunday collection receive a quarterly envelope packet, which contains envelopes for any special collections (i.e. Sharing Parish, St. Vincent de Paul & Archdiocesan collections) rather than the full monthly packet you receive now. Providing you with this new quarterly packet results in a savings to the parish.

These are the newest members of our parish, baptized in December.

Life: An "Epiphany" of God

"Life is always a good. ... Why is life a good? This question is found everywhere in the Bible, and from the very first pages it receives a powerful and amazing answer. The life which God gives man is quite different from the life of all other living creatures, inasmuch as man, although formed from the dust of the earth (cf. Gen 2:7, 3:19; Job 34:15; Ps 103:14; 104:29), is a manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory (cf. Gen 1:26-27; Ps 8:6). This is what Saint Irenaeus of Lyons wanted to emphasize in his celebrated definition: 'Man, living man, is the glory of God'. Man has been given a sublime dignity, based on the intimate bond which unites him to his Creator: in man there shines forth a reflection of God himself" (The Gospel of Life, n. 34).

Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Match the shapes.
