From the Pastor's Desk

This is the last Sunday of Advent and we now move into the more immediate phase of our preparation for the great feast of Christmas. Today we focus on St Joseph, the silent man of the New Testament. He does not speak one word in the scriptures and yet he had a crucial role in the great mystery of the incarnation.

Joseph is presented to us as a just and honorable man. Indeed if he had insisted on his rights, as he has at first contemplated, Mary would have been divorced and cast aside. But Joseph listens to the voice of God and does what is right. A little later on in Matthew's Infancy Narrative we hear how Joseph, again responsive to a dream, takes the necessary precautions and takes Jesus and his mother to safety in Egypt.

These are the actions of a good and responsible man, one who puts his own interests in second place. As someone said recently—Joseph is the forgotten hero of the Nativity. We also see Joseph as a man responsive to the Spirit of God. The dreams Joseph has are symbolic of his attention to the things of the Spirit, of his wish to discern the will of God. There is a deep spiritual side to St Joseph, perhaps a quiet and gentle spirituality but one which proves to be worthy enough for the father of Jesus Christ.

St Joseph has always been important to Catholics and down through the centuries he has been an example of love and care. Anyone who accepts the duties and responsibilities of a parent needs someone to pray for them and they could ask for no better patron than Joseph, the protector, provider and educator of the child Jesus.

We are in the immediate run up to Christmas. It is a busy time for us all; with so much to do to make this great feast a suitable occasion for our families. But we must be sure to make the right sort of preparations. Yes, the gifts and the food all have to be bought, the cards sent and the house decorated. But we, of all people, should be careful not to neglect the spiritual aspects of our preparation.

Make this Christmas a holy feast. Make this Christmas one in which you experience the gifts of healing and salvation that Christ alone can give. Make this Christmas a real time of peace, reconciliation and love.

I wish you an enjoyable weekend and a truly blest and faith-filled Advent.

Fr. Gerald Walsh

Thank you Roscoe Family for hosting the Elijah Cup this month. If you are interested in hosting please contact the parish office.

Do you have a desire to give something back to our Priests and Deacons for ALL they give to us?

Well, you can do just that!

A new ministry has arisen at Prince of Peace Parish called "Praying Hands"

The Vision of "Praying Hands" is to support our Priests, Deacons and their wives, and our Seminarians, through Intercessory Prayer, in thanksgiving for their service, as well as prayer for an increase in Vocations, by offering either a 6-month or 1-year commitment of praying a Holy Hour once a week in Eucharistic Adoration, or in church before the Tabernacle.

If you would like more information, or would like to fulfill your desire to give something back to the ones who give so much of themselves, please contact Jane Pozen at jnischan2011@comcast.net, or call 224-456-6951.

Praying Hands are Helping Hands

Mr. & Mrs. James and Paula Pettorini

Please join us in welcoming those who have recently registered in the parish.

This art installation was a collaboration between Religious Ed. and Prince of Peace students. Their roses represent their prayers and acts of love to honor Our Blessed Mother. Students learned about the iconography and history of this sacred image presented to Juan Diego on December 12, 1531.

Special Intention for the week of December 19, 2022

We pray that our personal relationship with Jesus Christ may be nourished by the Word of God and a life of prayer.

Come, help us pray.

A Huge Thank You from Catholic Charities

On behalf of Catholic Charities, I would like to thank those who donated gifts and gift cards to the Christmas Share Program this year. Prince of Peace always comes through! Many children were served in Lake County and were able to have Christmas gifts because of your donation. Your help with the donations is a testament to everyone who gives and provides for others from their abundance.

I am always in awe of the gifts that we place up on the altar for the Masses that weekend. It is a powerful visual representation of your generosity but also shows that many children who would go without this Christmas can be served and have the light of Christ come into their lives because of you.

Below are some pictures of the trailers getting ready to transport the gifts to the distribution center. A big thanks to all who volunteered to help transport the gifts from church, sort, catalog, load and then transport.

A Prayer for Vocations:

Heavenly Father, Your divine Son taught us to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His vineyard. We earnestly beg You to bless our Archdiocese and our world with many priests and religious men and women who will love You fervently, and gladly and courageously spend their lives in service to Your Son's Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We pray that their lives may be always centered on our Eucharistic Lord; that they be always faithful to the Holy Father; and that they may be devoted sons and daughters of Mary, our Mother, in making You known and loved; and that all may attain Heaven. Bless our families and our children and choose from our homes those whom You desire for this holy work. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

New and Current Parish Members:

Prince of Peace staff and the Communications Ministry frequently videotape or photograph participants enjoying programs, Masses and other events at our facility. These photographs are taken for use in parish publications, flyers, our website, brochures and future materials. All photos and videos taken on Prince of Peace property are for parish use and become the sole property of the parish. If you or a member of your family does not wish to be photographed, please contact the parish office.

Please inform the parish office of any additions to your family, changes in member status or address changes. All Catholic adults, 18 years old and no longer in school, who live within the parish area should register in their own name. Active and supporting membership includes offering one's time, talent and treasure to assist in promoting the Gospel and the mission of Prince of Peace Parish. Please help us maintain our parish records by registering or advising us of changes as soon as possible.

Welcome to Prince of Peace! We are glad you are here!
