June 25, 2023

Our Mission

Empowered by the Holy Spirit,
we are a Catholic community
open and willing to share Christ's Presence and love
with all God's family

Our Vision

Following in the Footsteps of the Prince of Peace

Mass Schedule

Saturday 5:00 p.m.
Sunday 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m.

Weekdays

8:00 a.m.

Holy Days

7:00 a.m. & 7:00 p.m.

Sacrament of Baptism

We are pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. Please contact the parish office at least two months prior to your preferred Baptism date to schedule a preparation class. We encourage completion of this class well before the baby's birth.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Saturday 4:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. or by appointment

Sacraments of Initiation

If you are an adult interested in receiving the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) please contact the Director of our RCIA program, Deacon Tim Leonard.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish office at least six months prior to your wedding to set a date and to begin your marriage preparation and required paper work.

Home or Hospital Visitation

Anyone who cannot attend Mass because of age or illness, and would like to receive the Eucharist at home, should call the parish office to arrange a visit. Likewise, if you are being admitted to the hospital, and would like a visit, please call.

Mass Intentions

If you would like to request Mass intentions, please call or visit the parish office.

Chapter 4: Charisms, Gifts and Symbols of the Sprits
Book by Charles Meyer, What a Modern Catholic Believes About The Holy Spirit,

Chapter 4

A modern Catholic believes that the Spirit has many great powers and can do many great and extraordinary things. Certain Christians possess these great powers not only for themselves but as a witness to God's presence in the community. These great powers of the Holy Spirit are called charisms. The two classes of charisms either belong to an office or ministry in the Church or given to individuals for the benefit of the community. Monsignor Meyer focuses on the latter. The gifts given to individuals are "the service of instruction, preaching, as well as the spiritual and corporal works of mercy: a brilliant flash of wisdom or understanding, an heroic manifestation of faith, the power to heal or work miracles, to speak in tongues or interpret them, and the ability intuitively to discern spirits."

The most common gift a Catholic may hear about or see firsthand is the gift to speak in tongues. Often this Catholic will encounter this gift in a charismatic/pentecostal group. This gift causes the individual to more fully practice their faith and feel God's presence in their everyday life. St. Paul states that the gift of tongues is only from the Holy Spirit if it benefits the Church and not only the individual. Also St. Paul states that the charism of speaking in tongues are the lowest of the charisms and that the gift or charisms of faith, hope, and charity are the highest. Speaking in tongues has a process in order to be understood properly and not cause confusion and chaos amongst the community.

Other personal graces also are attributed to the Spirit. They are called the gifts of the Holy Spirit. While charisms are for the entire community, the gifts of the Spirit only affect the recipient. Since the charisms are for the community they are ranked higher than the gifts. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. These gifts allow for the soul to be "more sensitive to the divine inspirations that incline to action within the area of their respective competence( p. 79)." The Encyclical Divinum Illud munus by Pope Leo XIII mentions how the gifts may lead a person to the highest level of sanctity and are permanent and will only be more perfect in heaven.

A modern day catholic will not only be curious about the charisms and gifts but also the symbols of the Spirit. The symbol of water and a dove represent baptism cleansing the soul from blemish. Fire represents purity and holiness. A kiss because the Holy Spirit comes forth from the exchange of love between the Father and the Son. A seal, oil, and the finger of God are also symbols of the Holy Spirit. The Spirits, Gifts, Charisms and Symbols are some of the great ways a modern Catholic may come to understand the dynamic presence of the Holy Spirit.

In Prayer,

Fr. John Hetland

A Prayer for Vocations:

Heavenly Father, Your divine Son taught us to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His vineyard. We earnestly beg You to bless our Archdiocese and our world with many priests and religious men and women who will love You fervently, and gladly and courageously spend their lives in service to Your Son's Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We pray that their lives may be always centered on our Eucharistic Lord; that they be always faithful to the Holy Father; and that they may be devoted sons and daughters of Mary, our Mother, in making You known and loved; and that all may attain Heaven. Bless our families and our children and choose from our homes those whom You desire for this holy work. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

New and Current Parish Members:

Prince of Peace staff and the Communications Ministry frequently videotape or photograph participants enjoying programs, Masses and other events at our facility. These photographs are taken for use in parish publications, flyers, our website, brochures and future materials. All photos and videos taken on Prince of Peace property are for parish use and become the sole property of the parish. If you or a member of your family does not wish to be photographed, please contact the parish office.

Please inform the parish office of any additions to your family, changes in member status or address changes. All Catholic adults, 18 years old and no longer in school, who live within the parish area should register in their own name. Active and supporting membership includes offering one's time, talent and treasure to assist in promoting the Gospel and the mission of Prince of Peace Parish. Please help us maintain our parish records by registering or advising us of changes as soon as possible.

Welcome to Prince of Peace! We are glad you are here!
