STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION: In the Gospel, Jesus entrusts Peter with the keys to the Kingdom, calling him to lead with faith and dedication. As stewards of our own gifts, we too, are called to build up the Church, using what we’ve been given to proclaim Christ as Lord and serve His mission with love.

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time— June 29, 2025 “You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.” (Matthew 16:18)

Sometimes God speaks to us very clearly, other times it is a little more difficult to understand what God is asking of us. Maybe you feel like Peter, God is calling you to something greater than yourself, but we don’t fully understand what He is asking of us. Now would be a great time to talk to your priest to better learn to to hear God’s voice and discern His purpose for your life. Church as a priest? Reach out to the Vocation Office at (620) 227-1550 or via email vocations@dcdiocese .org

2025-2026:Diocese of Dodge City Retreat Team -We are searching for volunteers ages 16 and up to serve on a retreat team for parishes in our diocese in the Fall and early Spring of next schoolyear. Training will be provided. Dates and locations to be determined. Contact Emma Webs for more information: dcyouth@dcdiocese.org

The news is reporting the negotiation of a complete Ceasefire between the Nations of Israel and Iran. If that holds, peace is nothing short of a miracle in a world seemingly standing on the edge of World War III. We continue to pray for the end of the killing and destruction in Russia and Ukraine. We continue to pray for the peaceful reform of immigration in our world to lead to opportunities and peace for all peoples. We continue to pray for an end to trade wars and free market prosperity for all. Pray for Peace!
