From the Office of Catechists and Faith Formation ...

PILLARS OF FAITH

While we certainly wouldn't discourage it, Catholics don't need to enroll in a course or attend seminars, in order to learn more about the beautiful foundations of their faith. Just turn to The Catechism of the Catholic Church. It may look daunting at first (the numbers go into the thousands, but remember, that's paragraphs, not pages!) but once you know how to utilize it, this resource is a tremendous tool of personal spiritual growth and evangelization. There's really only one goal of the Catechism: to bring "people …in communion… with Jesus Christ" because "only he can lead us to the love of the Father in the Spirit and make us share in the life of the Holy Trinity" (CCC 426) Basically, it's an invitation to fall deeper in love with Jesus Christ.

The Catechism is organized according to the 4 pillars of the faith:

- The Profession of Faith – The Creed (What We Believe)
- The Celebration of the Christian Mystery – Liturgy and Sacraments (How We Celebrate)
- Life in Christ – Christian Morality (How We Live)
- Christian Prayer – A Personal Relationship with God (How We Pray)

Faith doesn't require understanding

Throughout history, God has given people mysterious messages that defy reason but require faith. When Gabriel told Mary that she would give birth to the Son of God (Luke 1:26-38), she couldn't help but wonder how that could happen. The angel's explanation hardly clarified things. Instead of asking more, she simply said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. Be it done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38.

Children are used to trusting adults and know that faith doesn't require understanding. In the same way, we don't have to understand what God wants from us to know that it is for the best. Very little in the angel's message was logical but Mary didn't pretend to get it. She said, "Yes," because she had complete faith in God.

This month is the perfect time to talk with children about Mary's example of faith. When we are worried or uncertain, we can do what Mary did because good things always happen to people who say, "Yes," to God.

No hace falta entender la fe

A través de la historia Dios ha comunicado a la gente mensajes misteriosos que desafían la razón pero requieren fe. Cuando Gabriel le dijo a María que daría a luz al Hijo de Dios (Lucas 1:26-38), seguramente se preguntaba cómo podría suceder eso. La explicación del ángel no le aclaraba nada. Pero en lugar de hacer más preguntas, María dijo sencillamente: "He aquí la esclava del Señor; hágase en mí según tu palabra" (Lucas 1:38).

Los niños están acostumbrados a confiar en los adultos y saben que no hace falta entender la fe. De igual modo, no es necesario entender lo que Dios quiere de nosotros para saber que es para nuestro bien. En el mensaje del ángel había poca lógica, pero María no trataba de comprenderlo. Dijo "Sí" porque tenía completa fe en Dios.

Este mes es perfecto para hablar con los niños sobre el ejemplo de fe que nos da María. Cuando estemos preocupados o indecisos, podemos hacer lo que hizo María porque a la gente que dice "Sí" a Dios le ocurren cosas buenas.
