18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.” - Lk 12:20-21

“Pero Dios le dijo: ‘¡Insensato! Esta misma noche vas a morir. ¿Para quién serán todos tus bienes?’ Lo mismo le pasa al que amontona riquezas para sí mismo y no se hace rico de lo que vale ante Dios”. - Lc 12, 20-21

Reflecting Deeper on THE GOSPEL

We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care.

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime “in the future” while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. “Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom).” We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

Reflexión sobre el EVANGELIO

“El hombre ha sido creado para alabar, hacer reverencia y servir a Dios nuestro Señor” (San Ignacio de Loyola, fundador de los Jesuitas, cuya fiesta se celebra el 31 de julio). Alabar y servir a Dios es la fuente de la felicidad en la vida del ser humano, y cuando uno descubre esto en su experiencia de vida, es que descubre la felicidad. La primera lectura nos advierte de los penares de la vida y de lo que pasa al acumular riquezas y poner el corazón en ello. “Después de haber trabajado con inteligencia, sabiduría y habilidad, uno tiene que dejárselo todo a otro que nada ha hecho” (Eclesiastés 2,21).

Cuando estamos contentos porque nos va bien en la vida, por ejemplo: éxito en el trabajo, en el estudio, economía estable, una familia feliz y mucho más, es que nos pasa como el hombre rico del Evangelio, del que nos habla Jesús en su parábola. Está persona no encontraba lugar para su cosecha. Y claro, turbado por la codicia, no pensaba que Dios es el dueño de la vida. El Papa Francisco, en otras palabras, explica lo tercos que somos a veces y como Dios nos espera: “Dios es fiel en su amor, y hasta obstinado. Siempre nos espera con esperanza, incluso cuando nos encerramos en nuestras tristezas, rumiando continuamente los males sufridos y el pasado... Dios, sin embargo, es obstinadamente esperanzado: siempre cree que podemos levantarnos y no se resigna a vernos apagados y sin alegría”. ¡Señor, dame generosidad para compartir lo que tengo!

OUR OUTGOING YOUTH MINISTER

Dear parishioners,

This next year I am stepping down from my position as Youth Ministry Coordinator here at St. Paul's. I will be starting my Master's Degree Program in December of this year and I feel I will need to have more time to focus on that. However, I will still be around the parish and will remain a volunteer with the youth program, so the kids won't be rid of me yet! I have seen many parishioners this year come out and support and encourage our youth programs and events. Please continue to support our youth, and to encourage their involvement in the Parish.

We have fantastic kids here at St. Paul's and I feel very blessed to have gotten to know so many of them in the last 3 years and this year especially. I want to thank everyone who has supported me this year in this position, as it was most definitely needed as well as extremely appreciated!

A special thanks to all my youth helpers: Middle School - Nancy Larson (snacks & classroom help), Judy Schweisthal (snacks & classroom help), Mary Rose Brandt (classroom help) High School - Kathy Beutler (snacks, much appreciated!), Bill Seeber, Kari Appleton, Kat Appleton, and McKenzie Wharton for all your help on youth group nights! And a special thank you to Matthew Edmonds, Melissa Pina, and Kat Appleton for being our Confirmation catechists this year! I would not have been able to have had a successful year without their help.

Congratulations again, to all those confirmed this year! I am very proud of you all and am very excited to watch your Faith journey! Thank you all again for allowing me to get to know your wonderful children!

- Annie Appleton

OUR SAINT of the WEEK

ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI | FEAST DAY: AUGUST 1

Saint Alphonsus was born into a well-respected family in 1696, in Marianella, in the Kingdom of Naples. He received an exceptional education through private tutors and was conferred degrees in civil and canon law at 16. He practiced law for 8 years before he turned to the Church. He was ordained a priest in 1726. Saint Alphonsus traveled for 26 years in Kingdom of Naples preaching. His style of ministry was called “mission among the people,” he and a group of priests or lay brothers would go to rural areas, staying for a time to teach, preach, and pray with the people there. Saint Alphonsus was a brilliant preacher, he was able to connect with ordinary people and his teaching and sermons were marked by his compassion. In a time of restrictive Church rule, where fear of God was truly fear, Saint Alphonsus taught about God’s redeeming love. He also had a special devotion to Mary, praying to her for intercession and including devotions to her in his teaching. He wrote extensively, more than 100 books which have been through thousands of editions. His books are still available today and have been translated into more than 60 languages. In 1762 Saint Alphonsus was made a bishop by Pope Clement XIII, however, he was eventually allowed to resign his post because of his ill health. He was paralyzed for a time from rheumatic fever in 1775, and had rheumatism so severe it was deforming, bending his head so far forward that his chin rested on his chest. He died peacefully at the age of 90 in 1787. He was canonized in 1839 by Pope Gregory XVI, and in 1871 he was named a doctor of the church by Pope Pius IX. In 1950 he was declared patron of moral theologians by Pope Pius XII.

ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI, pray for us!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

When I Called, You Answered

I once knew a godly woman who had truly tasted the bitterness of this earthly life. This woman knew pain. She knew sacrifice. She knew hard labor and loss, including the death of a cherished child. She worked each day at a low-paying job, waiting patiently for her 65th birthday, when she could retire and devote herself full-time to her grandchildren. She crossed off the dwindling days on her calendar like a first grader waiting for Christmas. Ninety-eight days before she was set to retire, she died suddenly. Her name was erased from the schedule at work and penciled over with that of her replacement hire.

All things are vanity.

I think we all know someone like this, don’t we? If the details aren’t exactly the same, the outline of the story is: someone labors “with wisdom and knowledge and skill,” in the words of Ecclesiastes. And what profit comes to him? Sorrow and grief all his days. The proverbial barn filled with harvest and left to rot.

But I’ll let you in on a secret: this isn’t a sad story. I’ve only told you part of it.

This woman heard, daily, the voice of God, and against it she never hardened her heart, whatever news it brought her. This woman loved as hard as she worked. Every action was a form of evangelization. To talk to her was to feel the embrace of Christ.

As much as she waited for that retirement that never came, it was never the harvest in her barn.

This is what it means to be a true steward: to seek what is above.
