“Reflecting Deeper on The Gospel”

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

With little more than a year until the United States’ national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread, because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized, because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This week’s gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, “Render therefore to Caesar the things are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What’s a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God’s all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus’ words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn’t God — but he is indeed God’s.—

Father John Muir

“Reflexión sobre El Evangelio”

29° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Cómo le pagaremos al Señor todo lo que ha hecho por nosotros? Trabajo, hogar, comida, familia, educación, salud y muchas cosas más, que si las nombráramos no terminaríamos. Cada uno debe agradecer a Dios las maravillas de su amor, y de su cuidado especial. En la Liturgia de hoy, ante la trampa que le ponen a Jesús en este Evangelio, nos da una gran lección. El impuesto debido al César: “Devuelvan, pues, al César las cosas del César, y a Dios lo que corresponde a Dios” (Mateo 22,21). Darle lugar a cada quien sin engañarnos con imágenes falsas. Por lo tanto, si Dios nos ha dado todo, lo menos que podemos ser es ser agradecidos.

“Y con esta respuesta, Jesús se sitúa por encima de la polémica. Jesús siempre más allá. Por una parte, reconoce que se debe pagar el tributo al César --- también nosotros: hay que pagar los impuestos---, porque la imagen sobre la moneda es la suya; pero, sobre todo, recuerda que cada persona lleva en sí otra imagen --- la llevamos en el corazón, en el alma---, la de Dios, y por tanto es a Él, y solo a Él, a quien cada uno debe la propia existencia, la propia vida” (Papa Francisco 10/18/2020). Ante este mensaje, solo queda pedirle a Jesús, que nos ilumine con su verdad para distinguir lo que es civil y lo que es religioso, a no mezclar los campos, a no caer en trampas que nos alejen de la verdad que libera y hace justicia.

PARISH NEWS • NOTICIAS EN LA PARROQUIA

ANNUAL PARISH DINNER AND AUCTION IS COMING!

Save the Date, February 17, 2024

This year's Paddle Raiser will benefit the St. Paul's youth group providing funding for trips, supplies, retreats, scholarships and other needed items! We are looking for individual and corporate sponsors for matching funds. We are also looking to have a theme for the auction. Your ideas are welcomed. We are seeking 25 live and 50 silent auction items. We are seeking quality rather than quantity items, and as a general rule, new rather than used. There can be exceptions for something special. We are particularly interested in unique experiences, vacations, special dinners and desserts, guided trip or tour, local sporting event tickets, etc.

Dinner will be catered by Gary's BBQ as has been for the past few years. We need volunteers to assist with the organizing and background efforts that support the Parish auction. Volunteers are very important to the success of every auction. If you would like to volunteer or have ideas and suggestions, please contact Calvin Buyserie at cbuyserie@yahoo.com.

¡SE ACERCA LA CENA Y SUBASTA ANUAL DE LA PARROQUIA!

Aparte la fecha, 17 de febrero de 2024

El Paddle Raiser de este año beneficiará al grupo de jóvenes de San Pablo, proporcionando fondos para viajes, suministros, retiros, becas y otros artículos necesarios. Estamos buscando patrocinadores individuales y corporativos para igualar los fondos. También estamos buscando un tema para la subasta. Sus ideas son bienvenidas. Buscamos 25 artículos para la subasta en vivo y 50 para la subasta silenciosa. Buscamos artículos de calidad más que de cantidad y, por regla general, nuevos más que usados. Puede haber excepciones para algo especial. Estamos especialmente interesados en experiencias únicas, vacaciones, cenas y postres especiales, viajes o visitas guiadas, entradas para eventos deportivos locales, etc. La cena será servida por Gary's BBQ como en los últimos años. Necesitamos voluntarios para ayudar con la organización y los esfuerzos de fondo que apoyan la subasta de la Parroquia. Los voluntarios son muy importantes para el éxito de cada subasta. Si desea ser voluntario o tiene ideas y sugerencias, por favor póngase en contacto con Calvin Buyserie en cbuyserie@yahoo.com.

NEW ITEMS IN THE NARTHEX?

SPECIAL THANKS TO MARY DUNBAR AND HER FAMILY

When the Narthex was remodeled, Mary Dunbar saved wood that belonged to the old Narthex with the idea of one day being able to make a bench out of it. Our dear Mary did not live long enough to realize her goal, but her siblings knowing her desire, made it possible. The new pew and planters in the Narthex were made by Mary's brother Tom Shimp with the original wood from the church. We give thanks to the Lord for all the blessings receive in this community and to the Shimp siblings for this special gift.

Cuando se remodeló el Nártex, Mary Dunbar guardó madera que pertenecía al antiguo Nártex con la idea de poder hacer algún día un banco con ella. Nuestra querida Mary no vivió lo suficiente para realizar su objetivo, pero sus hermanos, conociendo su deseo, lo hicieron posible. El nuevo banco y las jardineras en el Narthex fueron hechos por el hermano de Mary, Tom Shimp, con la madera original de la iglesia. Gracias Señor por todas las bendiciones a tu comunidad y gracias a los Hermanos Shimp.

OUR SAINT of the WEEK

Venerable Rafael Cordero y Molina dedicated his life to the free education of children in Puerto Rico. Born into a black family and, thus, barred from the local schools as a child, he established a school committed to inclusion and provided free education for any in need.

Prayer

Our Lord and God, You instilled in your Servant, Rafael Cordero y Molina, a Puerto Rican layman, an ardent zeal for the integral education of children and a luminous charity toward the poor and helpless. Help me to also respond with the generosity of service to those in need in around me. I ask of You, if it is Your will, that You grant me (my intercession) so that Your servant Rafael is elevated to sainthood. Amen.

El Venerable Rafael Cordero y Molina dedicó su vida a la educación gratuita de los niños de Puerto Rico. Nacido en una familia negra y, por lo tanto, excluido de las escuelas locales cuando era niño, estableció una escuela comprometida con la inclusión y brindó educación gratuita a todos los necesitados.

Oración

Señor y Dios nuestro, Tú inculcaste en tu Siervo, Rafael Cordero y Molina, laico puertorriqueño, un celo ardiente por la educación integral de los niños y una caridad luminosa hacia los pobres y desvalidos. Ayúdame a responder también con la generosidad del servicio a los necesitados que me rodean. Te pido, si es Tu voluntad, que me concedas (mi intercesión) para que Tu siervo Rafael sea elevado a la santidad. Amén.

How should the ministers respond if the Eucharist is dropped or spilled? If this happens, the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion should immediately pick up the dropped host and consume it. If it is a case of the Precious Blood being spilled, the minister would use the purificator (and additional purificators if needed) to clean the spill and then the area should be reverently washed as soon as the Mass is over and the water poured into the sacrarium (a special sink that is located in church sacristies for reverently disposing of holy water, the water used to clean sacred vessels, etc.)

¿Cómo deben reaccionar los ministros si se cae o se derrama la Eucaristía? Si esto sucede, el sacerdote, diácono o ministro extraordinario de la Sagrada Comunión debe recoger inmediatamente la hostia caída y consumirla. Si se trata de la Preciosa Sangre derramada, el ministro usará el purificador (y purificadores adicionales si es necesario) para limpiar el derrame y luego el área debe ser reverentemente lavada tan pronto como la Misa haya terminado y el agua vertida en el sacrarium (un fregadero especial que se encuentra en las sacristías de la iglesia para disponer reverentemente del agua bendita, el agua utilizada para limpiar los vasos sagrados, etc.).
