16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.
- Mc 6, 34

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while.” For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there’s more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. “Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!” And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn’t more vacation time. It’s experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

Father John Muir

14° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Quién de nosotros no conoce la figura del buen pastor? Ese pastor que siempre ha estado presente en nuestras vidas, ayudándonos e indicándonos el buen camino. ¿Quién nos ha pastoreado en nuestra vida? Pues, han sido nuestros padres, maestros, buenos amigos y catequistas por mencionar algunos ejemplos. Para nuestro crecimiento espiritual tenemos al buen Pastor que es Jesús. De hecho, el Salmo 23 nos invita a orar y alabar al Señor como el buen Pastor. Qué bueno es saber que todos somos ovejas con pastor. A todos nos llama en diferentes etapas de nuestra vida, y si escuchamos su voz y le hacemos caso, estamos por buen camino. Mucha gente sigue a Jesús porque al escuchar su Palabra su corazón se llena de paz y de esperanza. Sin embargo, debemos estar listos y atentos porque existen muchos pastores falsos que engañan de muchas formas y desvían del camino que nos lleva a Dios.

El Evangelio de hoy nos dice que Jesús no tenía tiempo ni para comer y descansar y se fue con sus discípulos a un lugar apartado y tranquilo. Pero, sucedió que las personas se fueron corriendo de prisa para alcanzarlo. Y ahí Jesús se compadece de ellos, “Pues estaban como ovejas sin pastor. Y se puso a enseñarles largamente” (Marcos 6:34). Qué hermosa actitud de Jesús, aún cansado y con hambre, se da totalmente a sus seguidores. A nosotros nos toca ahora, no dejar de buscar el tiempo y el sitio adecuado para encontrarnos con Jesús. Ese lugar y tiempo es la Eucaristía dominical

OUR SAINT of the WEEK

St. Angela of Foligno (c. 1248–1309), sometimes called the “Teacher of Theologians,” Angela’s first life as a wife and mother gave her unique insights. Her path to sainthood was not through perfection but through penitence and charity. She experienced periods of certainty and doubt, temptation and steadfastness.

Santa Ángela de Foligno (c. 1248-1309), a veces llamada la «Maestra de Teólogos», su primera vida como esposa y madre le proporcionó una visión única. Su camino hacia la santidad no pasó por la perfección, sino por la penitencia y la caridad. Experimentó períodos de certeza y de duda, de tentación y de firmeza.
