"Reflecting Deeper on THE GOSPEL"*

"Reflexion sobre EL EVANGELIO."*

We may feel like we never have enough. Enough money, time, love, status or anything else that seems to be the focus of our lives. We live lives that are packed with activities, meetings and obligations - keeping our hearts distracted away from our relationship with God, from our families and from others in our lives who need our love.

This week we have the treasures of the Book of Sirach to contemplate. Each day we can learn something about trusting in God, about learning discipline and where true happiness lies. We learn how God works with us and how we learn the ways of the Lord. There is even practical wisdom about friendship.

From the gospels this week, we have much fruit for our contemplation, for we see Jesus instructing his disciples about service about trusting God's working in others. We are warned about giving scandal. And, we see Jesus' unwillingness to be compromised by trick questions, and the way he speaks about marriage. Finally, we see his reverence for children. We can all draw much fruit from listening to him this week.

And every morning, we can begin by sitting at the side of our beds with our hands open on our laps, asking God to help us receive these gifts with open hearts. We can carry that focus with us throughout the day, remembering in the quiet moments what we are asking for. Always, we end our day simply thanking God for the love and gifts of the day.

Puede que sintamos que nunca tenemos suficiente. Suficiente dinero, tiempo, amor, estatus o cualquier otra cosa que parezca ser el centro de nuestras vidas. Llevamos una vida repleta de actividades, reuniones y obligaciones que distraen nuestros corazones de nuestra relación con Dios, de nuestras familias y de otras personas que necesitan nuestro amor.

Esta semana tenemos los tesoros del Libro del Eclesiástico para contemplar. Cada día podemos aprender algo sobre la confianza en Dios, sobre el aprendizaje de la disciplina y sobre dónde reside la verdadera felicidad. Aprendemos cómo trabaja Dios con nosotros y cómo aprendemos los caminos del Señor. Incluso hay sabiduría práctica sobre la amistad.

En los evangelios de esta semana tenemos muchos frutos para nuestra contemplación, pues vemos a Jesús instruyendo a sus discípulos sobre el servicio, sobre la confianza en la obra de Dios en los demás. Se nos advierte sobre dar escándalo. Y, vemos la poca disposición de Jesús a comprometerse con preguntas capciosas, y la forma en que habla sobre el matrimonio. Por último, vemos su reverencia por los niños. Todos podemos sacar mucho fruto de escucharle esta semana.

Y cada mañana, podemos empezar por sentarnos junto a la cama con las manos abiertas sobre el regazo, pidiendo a Dios que nos ayude a recibir estos dones con el corazón abierto. Podemos llevar ese enfoque con nosotros a lo largo del día, recordando en los momentos de tranquilidad lo que estamos pidiendo. Siempre, terminamos nuestro día simplemente agradeciendo a Dios por el amor y los regalos del día.

SPIRITUALITY OF GRIEF GROUP

JANUARY 24TH

St. James
Catholic Church

Grief comes to us in many forms: the death of a spouse, child parent or other loved one, other significant losses like a job, a marriage or other relationships. While there are many good psychological resources to help deal with the emotional turmoil that these losses let loose inside of us, how might we deal with our spirituality, our understanding of and relationship to God? St. James is offering a series of meetings to learn and reflect on our experiences around the spiritual issues of grief.

Our Spirituality of Grief Group will meet for five sessions, every other Friday evening starting on January 24th, at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall at St. James. Each session will last no more than 90 minutes. There is no charge, nor is it necessary to register in advance, but it would be helpful to know in advance how many people are coming, so if you think you might come as a courtesy, please call the parish office, or email Scott Scofield at sscofield@archdpcx.org to let us know. If you have any questions, feel free to call Kent Burtner at (503)475-3429
