Welcome to our parish...we are a community founded in a spirit of unity to serve our God through loving HIM and one another, always!

Dear Parishioners,

Summer greetings! While I know it is not officially summer until June 21, things have settled down a bit around here and our slower summer pace is setting in. Fr. Scott and Kate Fraser, our new youth minister, are in Arizona this week at the international LIFETEEN Conference for priests, youth ministers, and adult volunteers. I went in 2007 when I was assigned to St. Mary in Hudson, and it was a great experience. Luckily I am not too lonely in the rectory since I have Eric Garris with me. Eric will be a fifth year seminarian this coming school year and, God willing, will be ordained a priest in May of 2017. I have known Eric for several years, and he is living and working here for this summer. He will be visiting the sick and homebound, doing some adult education stuff, working with our youth ministry, helping out at Masses, and other odds and ends. It is always great to have young seminarians around to reenergize us.

In the summer in every parish in the world Mass attendance declines. I want to share with you something I came across that seems to put quite "plainly" why it is important to go to Mass:

- ♦ Sunday Mass is not a show on stage; it is worship, prayer before an altar.
- ♦ Sunday Mass is not what we get out of it, but what we give. The more we put into prayer, the more we get out of it.
- ♦ Sunday Mass takes just one hour out of the 168 hours in a week.
- ♦ Sunday is not the day we should sleep in. We force ourselves to get up on work days and school days. Are money and learning more important than God?
- ♦ Sunday Mass attendance does not depend on the priest, musicians, or ushers. We dare not allow any person to stand in the way of our worship of God.
- ♦ Sunday Mass is available on vacation. If we can drive to a vacation spot, we can drive a short distance to go to Mass.
- ♦ Sunday Mass is the focal point of every weekend. Our vacations are possible because God has richly blessed us.
- ♦ Sunday Mass outranks sports tournaments, team travel, and athletic practices. There are many Mass times available.

This is just some food for thought! See you in Church! Have a great week.
Peace, Fr. John

During the month of April the following children were baptized in our parish:

Along with the theme, we will be highlighting a specific ministry or opportunity that embodies the theme for the month. We encourage all to participate and reflect on these monthly acts of mercy

The Veil and the Valedictorian

Congratulations to parishioner and high school graduate Olivia Kijauskas for being named valedictorian of the Euclid high school senior class of 2016! Olivia is faithful to daily Mass and prayer, and is a devoted member of our Lifeteen youth ministry program. For the past few years, she has been discerning a vocation to the religious life, and we are proud to say that this August she will be entering the order of Passionist nuns in Kentucky. Olivia, we pray for you and your vocation to the religious life. May the gift of wisdom you have received and nourished guide you to a holy life and a deeper love of God! May we all continue to pray for vocations to religious life and priesthood!
