THE FJB BLOG

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Birthday of the Church! Today is the Feast of Pentecost, the holy day which is celebrated on the seventh Sunday after Easter. Pentecost commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ while they were in Jerusalem celebrating the Feast of Weeks, as described in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2:1–31). In Christian tradition, this event represents the birth of the early church.

This feast is a good time for us to reflect on the role of the "church" in our lives. Many times when we think of "church" we think of the building where we attend Mass. We may also think of the diocese and/or the Vatican. Many times you will hear priests and/or catechists say "the church teaches." This usually refers to the teaching of the Pope and Bishops of the Church and represents the teachings of the last 2,000 years as we continue to unpack and understand the Scriptures, especially the Gospels, in our lives. We try to understand the Scriptures and teachings of Jesus contained within them in light of the world in which we are living. The church, in her wisdom, continues to be led by the Holy Spirit. Right now we have a suffering church. We have a church plagued by scandal and sinful behavior. We have a church that is being divided by liberals and conservatives. We have a church where the Pope is being accused of heresy by fellow bishops and cardinals. I am not sure that what he said is heresy, but my wish and hope is that Pope Francis would clarify the statements that are confusing people. Lack of clarity can be harmful and has led to significant misunderstanding in the past. But that is far above my pay-grade 😂 What I do know is that the "church" has been blessed and cursed for over 2,000 years with the greatest saints and the greatest sinners in leadership of the church. And yet, somehow it has survived. I think, like all of us, the church continues to struggle in how to live in this ever-changing world of complexity, far beyond anything seen in any generation before. More than ever, we need to rely on the Holy Spirit to help cleanse and reorder the church so that, hopefully, no one is ever harmed again. My prayer on the Feast of Pentecost is that we all work to call upon the Holy Spirit to once again descend upon us and our church and allow all people's hearts and minds to be open to this, and allow the truth to shine through and not distract us from our journey towards accepting the great gift of Salvation Christ won for us and gifted us at our Baptism.

Vacation Bible School is just a week away! There are still a few days to sign up. Call the parish office. It is a great opportunity for our young children to learn about Jesus in a fun, summer setting.

Make it a great week! See you in Church.
Peace,
Fr. John
