June 11, 2023 - Corpus Christi

"Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread." (1 Corinthians 10:17)

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our road map to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

*The parish family of Our Lady of the Mount would like to congratulate the Confirmandi who received Confirmation on Thursday, June 8th, 2023.
May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit guide them always in their faith journey.*

National Eucharistic Revival Comes to Our Lady of the Mount Church

The Holy Eucharist is at the heart of everything that we believe as Catholics. Because of this, the Bishops of the United States have called together a National Eucharistic Revival to enkindle devotion to Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. There are four phases to this revival. Phase 1 was the diocesan phase, and it began last summer on the Feast of Corpus Christi. Phase 2, the parish phase, is right around the corner. It will begin at Our Lady of the Mount

Church with a beautiful Eucharistic procession after the 11:30 am Mass on Sunday, June 11th. All are encouraged to attend.

This National Eucharistic Revival is a celebration of God's Real Presence on Earth, where we are joyfully invited to deepen our devotion to Christ in the Eucharist. Bishop Cozzins, the Chairman of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)'s Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis, describes it as "a movement that enkindles a living relationship with Jesus Christ and renews the Church." During this upcoming year, we will all have an opportunity to participate in some way in parish events to respond to the love of Christ in the Eucharist. This upcoming Eucharistic procession on June 11th is only the beginning of our exciting journey.

Next year, Phase 3 will begin with a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, Indiana, from July 17-21, 2024. The National website describes this as follows: "at this historic event, 80,000 Catholics of all ages will gather to reconsecrate their hearts to the source and summit of our faith".

Following this will be Phase 4, the year of "Going Out on Mission", from July 21-Pentecost 2025, which will lead us into a Jubilee Year and into spiritual renewal.

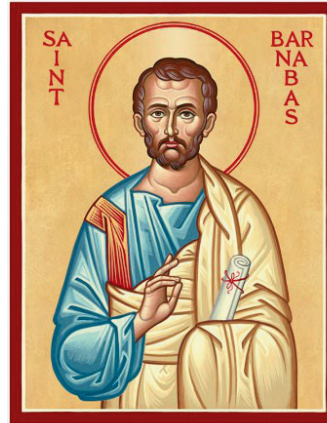

Our own Bishop Checchio is on the Bishop's Advisory Team for National Eucharistic Revival. His opening homily can be found on the diocesan website, diometuchen.org, and more information is available on the national website, eucharisticrevival.org.

Saint Barnabas

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians.

When a Christian community developed at Antioch,

Barnabas was sent as the official representative of the church of Jerusalem to incorporate them into the fold. He and Paul instructed in Antioch for a year, after which they took relief contributions to Jerusalem.

Later Paul and Barnabas, now clearly seen as charismatic leaders, were sent by Antioch officials to preach to the gentiles. Enormous success crowned their efforts. After a miracle at Lystra, the people wanted to offer sacrifice to them as gods—Barnabas being Zeus, and Paul, Hermes—but the two said, "We are of the same nature as you, human beings. We proclaim to you good news that you should turn from these idols to the living God" (see Acts 14:8-18).

But all was not peaceful. They were expelled from one town, they had to go to Jerusalem to clear up the ever-recurring controversy about circumcision, and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin John Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. The disagreement that followed was so sharp that Barnabas and Paul separated: Barnabas taking Mark to Cyprus, Paul taking Silas to Syria. Later they were reconciled—Paul, Barnabas and Mark.

When Paul stood up to Peter for not eating with gentiles for fear of his Jewish friends, we learn that "even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy" (see Galatians 2:1-13).

Reflection

Barnabas is spoken of simply as one who dedicated his life to the Lord. He was a man "filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. Thereby, large numbers were added to the Lord." Even when he and Paul were expelled from Antioch in Pisidia—modern-day Turkey—they were "filled with joy and the Holy Spirit."
