From the Pastor's Desk

October 10, 2023

Dear Friends,

As your pastor, I am pleased to share our Parish Stewardship Report and Financial Summary for fiscal years 2022-2023. We were challenged this year to overcome the compounding effects of the high inflation we all have experienced over the last couple of years. Thanks to a combination of your generosity and good budget work by our financial council we have once again been able to meet our financial commitments.

To all of you who support the parish via weekly donations, the parish appeal, or the funding of capital projects – thank you! Your year over year consistent participation in the ministry of the Gospel reminds me of what Paul wrote in his letter to the Philippians 4:19: “My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus”.

Thank YOU again, our parishioners, for your steadfast, consistent generosity. I am especially inspired as you continue to support our parish when I know most families are struggling with higher costs.

Know with confidence that the spiritual health of our parishioners will always be my focus for this parish. Rest assured of my prayers for you and your families and please keep our parish family in yours.

Peace and all good,

Rev. Sean W. Kenney, OFS
Pastor

Our Parish continued to feel the effects of inflation in the 2022-2023 fiscal year but efforts to reduce expenses combined with improved revenue has provided stability to our financial position.

Total Parish revenue decreased by 22% or $301k compared to the prior fiscal year but as noted in the previous annual report, the 2021-2022 fiscal year included Restricted Donations of $378k which compares to $20k in 2022-2023. After revenue is adjusted for comparative purposes, Parish revenue increased by $59k or 5.9%. Total Parish expenses were 4.0% higher than the previous fiscal year but that was significantly less than the surge in expenses realized in the prior year of 9.3%. The Parish operated at a deficit of $50k, down from a loss of $153k in the previous year. This again is before the Restricted Donations mentioned earlier. And it should be noted this deficit in the 2022-2023 year includes $134k in depreciation expense.

Our parishioners' charitable nature and their support of our Parish continues as our annual appeal raised $105k which equates to a rise of 2.8% over the prior year. This revenue was critically important to our financial stability as without it we would have sustained an operating loss of $155k.

Overall weekend collections were $15k or 2.8% greater than 2021-2022. The weekly "in pew" collections rebounded by $41k or 15% while online giving remained strong but dipped by $26k or 9.0%. The Parish weekend collections include online giving, through WeShare and eCatholic. We are grateful that many of our parishioners continue to choose online giving. We cannot stress enough the importance of online giving because it ensures our Parish a dependable stream of weekly collections, particularly during summer months or any other time of year when parishioners are away from home.

The Diocesan Assessment collections experienced a decline of $4k or 25% from the prior year. This revenue is used to offset the Diocesan Assessment we pay which is a tax of about 13.5% of assessable Parish revenue. This assessment is used to support the operation of the Diocese.

Christmas collections increased by $9.3k or 10.0% while Easter giving was more robust with growth of 14% or $7.0k. Holy Days collections rebounded substantially by 40% or $2k. Religious Education revenue grew modestly at 3.0% as our student count continues to grow. Interest income which has been essentially non-existent for some time amounted to $5.6k. The Parish also was the recipient of a sizable bequest of $25k.

Total operating expenses dropped by $26k or 2.4% which correlates with the focus of the Finance Council to lower all controllable costs. Significant savings of $15k were realized in the liturgy and worship category while salaries and related costs fell by $11k. Religious education expenses declined by $5k and the cost of our musicians decreased by $10k. Higher expenses were realized in repairs and maintenance at $10k and contracted services at $13k. Both of these increases were directly attributable to the upkeep of the property and related systems as well as unforeseen repairs. Capital improvements made to the facilities during the year included HVAC and sound system improvements amounted to approximately $28k.

"My God will fully supply whatever you need..." - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

Blessed Carlo Acutis

Born in London and raised in Milan, Carlo's wealthy parents were not particularly religious. Upon receiving his first communion at age seven, Carlo became a frequent communicant, making a point of praying before the tabernacle before or after every Mass. In addition to Francis of Assisi, Carlo took several of the younger saints as his models, including Bernadette

Soubirous, Jacinta and Francisco Marto, and Dominic Savio.

At school Carlo tried to comfort friends whose parents were undergoing divorce, as well as stepping in to defend disabled students from bullies. After school hours he volunteered his time with the city's homeless and destitute. Considered a computer geek by some, Carlo spent four years creating a website dedicated to cataloguing every reported Eucharistic miracle around the world. He also enjoyed films, comics, soccer, and playing popular video games.

Diagnosed with leukemia, Carlo offered his sufferings to God for the intentions of the sitting pope—Benedict XVI—and the entire Church. His longtime desire to visit as many sites of Eucharistic miracles as possible was cut short by his illness. Carlo died in 2006 and was beatified in 2020.

As he had wished, Carlo was buried in Assisi at St. Mary Major's "Chapel of the Stripping", where Francis had returned his clothes to his father and began a more radical following of the Gospel.

Among the thousands present for Carlo's beatification at Assisi's Basilica of St. Francis were many of his childhood friends. Presiding at the beatification service, Cardinal Agostino Vallini praised Carlo as an example of how young people can use technology to spread the Gospel "to reach as many people as possible and help them know the beauty of friendship with the Lord." His liturgical feast is celebrated on October 12.

Reflection

Carlo Acutis did not strive to become famous but rather to cooperate as generously as possible with God's grace. That journey brought him many experiences, but they were all united by a burning desire to serve God and others as generously as possible.

Saint Teresa of Avila

Teresa lived in an age of exploration as well as political, social, and religious upheaval. It was the 16th century, a time of turmoil and reform. She was born before the Protestant Reformation and died almost 20 years after the closing of the Council of Trent.

The gift of God to Teresa in and through which she became holy and left her mark on the Church and the world is threefold: She was a woman; she was a contemplative; she was an active reformer.

As a woman, Teresa stood on her own two feet, even in the man's world of her time. She was "her own woman," entering the Carmelites despite strong opposition from her father. She is a person wrapped not so much in silence as in mystery. Beautiful, talented, outgoing, adaptable, affectionate, courageous, enthusiastic, she was totally human. Like Jesus, she was a mystery of paradoxes: wise, yet practical; intelligent, yet much in tune with her experience; a mystic, yet an energetic reformer; a holy woman, a womanly woman.

Teresa was a woman "for God," a woman of prayer, discipline, and compassion. Her heart belonged to God. Her ongoing conversion was an arduous lifelong struggle, involving ongoing purification and suffering. She was misunderstood, misjudged, and opposed in her efforts at reform. Yet she struggled on, courageous and faithful; she struggled with her own mediocrity, her illness, her opposition. And in the midst of all this she clung to God in life and in prayer. Her writings on prayer and contemplation are drawn from her experience: powerful, practical, and graceful. She was a woman of prayer; a woman for God.

Teresa was a woman "for others." Though a contemplative, she spent much of her time and energy seeking to reform herself and the Carmelites, to lead them back to the full observance of the primitive Rule. She founded over a half-dozen new monasteries. She traveled, wrote, fought—always to renew, to reform. In her self, in her prayer, in her life, in her efforts to reform, in all the people she touched, she was a woman for others, a woman who inspired and gave life.

Her writings, especially the Way of Perfection and The Interior Castle, have helped generations of believers. In 1970, the Church gave her the title she had long held in the popular mind: Doctor of the Church. She and St. Catherine of Siena were the first women so honored.

Reflection

Ours is a time of turmoil, a time of reform, and a time of liberation. Modern women have in Teresa a challenging example. Promoters of renewal, promoters of prayer, all have in Teresa a woman to reckon with, one whom they can admire and imitate.
