The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 4, 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In the Gospel this Sunday, Jesus visits his hometown of Nazareth and arrives at the synagogue to teach. At first the people of Nazareth are amazed at this wisdom and teaching; however, things turn very quickly to suspicion and anger. As Christians, we need to challenge our own perceptions of what God means and what God does. We cannot keep Jesus in a box and just expect Him to do our bidding. Jesus is there for everyone, and our perception of his work should be expanded to know that He is there for Everyone.

The first phase of the Church renovation has started with the instillation of the new boiler system to provide heat for the Church, Religious Education building and offices. The Church now has heat, however, unfortunately, HVAC Unit No# 1 is no longer working, and we only have the 40 ton units cooling the Church.

We have been told by the contractors that the new HVAC units are due to be installed in August. Keep your prayers coming. The instillation will be a major undertaking to replace our aged system of the parish. Thank you for your generosity towards STHY.

Furthermore, we have signed a contract with Studio Red Architects who will help guide us on phase two of the renovation of the Church. Studio Red Architects have provided their services to several of our parishes here in the Archdiocese, and I am confident they will be able to lead us in the renovation of our fifty plus year old church. For the renovation of the sanctuary, we are planning to replace the existing pews, flooring and lighting in the main church. We have a table set up in the back of the Church near the Baptismal area that has some of the materials that will be used in the renovation of the Church. Thank you for your generosity to St Hyacinth.

The summer can be a very busy time for families and during the vacation season it is easy to forget that STHY needs your donations. Setting up recurring donations with Faith Direct is an easy way to make sure STHY still receives your donations while you are away. Enrollment forms are available in the Church office, or you can visit Faith Direct's secure website at www.faithdirect.net to enroll on line. Our parish code is TX526.Thank you for your continued support of our parish family with your time, talent and treasure!

This year we will celebrate the 56th anniversary of the founding of St Hyacinth. For this year's celebration, the weekend of August 21st and 22nd, there will be a weekend of prayer, remembrance and celebration. There will be giveaways and fun throughout the weekend culminating with the long-anticipated raffle of wonderful prizes. Soo, please pick up your raffle tickets from one of the volunteers at the entrance to the Church after the weekend masses or come to the parish office to pick up your tickets during the week. We have the same wonderful raffle prizes that were going to be raffled off at the 2020 spring festival, however, those tickets will be added to this raffle for the Parish anniversary.

Café Catholica is our most popular program for young adults (ages 18-39), single and married. This event features dynamic speakers, prayer and socializing. It is a great way to help young adults in our community connect with others from around the archdiocese. This year, Café Catholica will be held at the Catholic Charismatic Center on Mondays in July starting on July 5th. Each night will include Mass at 6:00pm, Talk at 7:15pm, followed by snack, confession and tailgate gathering at 8:15 pm. This year, the host speakers will include, Mark and Katie Hartfiel, Chila Anyanwu, Golin Nykaza and Cardinal DiNardo. The theme for this year is "Courageous Love". For more details about Café Catholica go to www.cafecatholica.com.

Kat Nguyen, one of the young people of our parish, and recent 2020 graduate of the University of St Thomas, will be speaking at all the Masses this weekend to encourage the young people of the parish to participate in Café Catholica. Please give a warm welcome to Kat Nguyen.

The parish office will be closed Monday July 5th in observance of Independence Day. Please have a safe holiday weekend.

God Bless,
Fr. Reginald Samuels

Reading 1 Ez 2:2-5

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me
and set me on my feet,
and I heard the one who was speaking say to me:
Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites,
rebels who have rebelled against me;
they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day.
Hard of face and obstinate of heart
are they to whom I am sending you.
But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD!
And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 123:1-2, 3-4

R\ Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you I lift up my eyes
who are enthroned in heaven —
As the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters. R

As the eyes of a maid
are on the hands of her mistress,
So are our eyes on the LORD, our God,
till he have pity on us. R

Have pity on us, O LORD, have pity on us,
for we are more than sated with contempt;
our souls are more than sated
with the mockery of the arrogant, with the contempt of the proud. R

Reading 2 2 Cor 12:7-10

Brothers and sisters:
That I, Paul, might not become too elated,
because of the abundance of the revelations,
a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan,
to beat me, to keep me from being too elated.
Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me,
but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you,
for power is made perfect in weakness."
I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.
Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults,
hardships, persecutions, and constraints,
for the sake of Christ;
for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Gospel Mk 6:1-6

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.
When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue,
and many who heard him were astonished.
They said, "Where did this man get all this?
What kind of wisdom has been given him?
What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!
Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary,
and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?
And are not his sisters here with us?"
And they took offense at him.
Jesus said to them,
"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."
So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.
He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston
Prayer in the Time of the Coronavirus

Comfort us, O Lord, for we are like your disciples on the storm tossed seas, unsettled by what lies ahead. We turn to You, our Healer and Guide, to still our hearts in our time of need and hear our prayer: Heal those who are sick with the coronavirus and protect the elderly and most vulnerable. Give strength to all who tend to our health and wisdom to researchers who work toward a cure. Open our eyes and hearts, as you did during Hurricane Harvey, that we may look beyond our immediate needs to care for others who need help. Through the Holy Spirit, guide our leaders to make wise decisions for the welfare of all the people they serve. Grant eternal rest to those who have died from the virus. May Mary, Our Mother, who has heard our pleas in the storms of our lives, intercede to her Son, that we may find healing and a prompt end to this illness.

Mary, Star of the Sea, pray for us.
Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior, heal us.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

RCIA – the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The world seems crazy right now and it can be difficult to find our way through the chaos.

Now is the time our Catholic faith gives us strength and direction.

Have you ever considered becoming Catholic, or do you want to better understand your faith?

The RCIA team invites you join our study group. Please contact the parish Religious Education Office at 281-479-8832 for details.

You're Invited To Be a Catechist!

We are in need of volunteer catechists for Faith Formation

Thank you for your interest in becoming a catechist. We want to answer all your questions as you prayerfully discern if this ministry is right for you. Take a stroll through some of these resources below and then contact us for more information. Call or email: Pamela Johnson, Director Faith Formation/Religious Education (281) 479-8832 or Pjohnson@sthyainth.org.

We are in need of volunteers. YOU are very important to our program!

It had been a long tradition at St. Hyacinth that our parish family has offered their time and talents. It is through caring, sharing, and praying that our community has grown in love and support of one another. The success of our religious program depends on the dedicated individuals in our parish willing to share their time, talents and faith with the future church, our parish children. We encourage all our parishioners, as well as parents of children in our program, to help out in some way.

We are always in need of Catechists, Substitutes Classroom Aides, Confirmation Core Team Members and anyone willing to volunteer their time to help us run our faith formation program .
