Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Through this week's Gospel readings, we are called to acknowledge that discipleship occurs in community. Each and every one of us are called to bring our unique gifts and talents to share in the work of witnessing to Jesus. Christ calls each and every one of us to follow him. The question this week is: Will we listen to the call in our own lives? Notice how Jesus calls each of the disciples by name in the gospel readings. He calls us by name as well.

Teaching, proclaiming, and curing summarizes the ministry of Jesus in the Gospels. If Jesus calls us to 'come after' then there has to be an acknowledgement that we leave something behind so that we can follow him. First, we need to elevate our understanding of our baptismal calling and increase our understanding of the importance of the love and respect for human dignity.

One of our goals for 2023 is to increase the number of people using our electronic formats for the dissemination of information from our parish. We have our website: Sthyacinth.org, which I along with the team, update almost daily with information about the activities that go on in the parish. There is Flocknotes, which is our information delivery service for the parish, in which we email and or text information about the activities of the parish. Go to the Flocknote tab on our website and join the group "Parishioners". We are on Facebook, go and 'like' our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/StHyacinthchurch>. Our livestream masses and liturgies can be found on our website, Facebook and Vimeo.

As we enter a new year, let us all think of ways in which we can make life easier for ourselves and the parish. One of our parish goals in 2023 is to increase the number of families supporting St. Hyacinth using electronic giving. Currently we have 211 families using online giving. You can register for online giving by just simply going to our parish website <https://www.sthyacinth.org/online-giving>. Thank you for your generosity and support of STHY.

I ask everyone to pray for the young people of our parish who will be going on a Confirmation retreat next weekend January 28th and 29th. As this group of young people move closer to celebrating the Confirmation with Bishop Italo in the Spring, let's keep each of these young people in your prayers. And pray for all of the Staff and volunteers who will be helping with the retreat.

Finally, preparations have started for the 9th Annual Ministries retreat here at St. Hyacinth. The retreat will start on February 25th with Mass and throughout the day. There will be several presentations on the Liturgy from guests throughout the Archdiocese. We will have special guest speaker, Dr. Dan Girardot, who is the Associate Director of Worship for the Archdiocese of Galveston Houston. We welcome everyone who is involved with our ministries to sign up for this important retreat, especially to develop an understanding as to why Liturgy is the work of the people. Be on the lookout for more details online and in the bulletin.

God Bless,
Fr. Reginald Samuels

Reading 1

Is 8:23 - 9:3

First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun
and the land of Naphtali;
but in the end he has glorified the seaward road,
the land west of the Jordan,
the District of the Gentiles.
Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness:
for there is no gloom where but now there was distress.

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom
a light has shone.

You have brought them abundant joy
and great rejoicing,
as they rejoice before you as at the harvest,
as people make merry when dividing spoils.
For the yoke that burdened them,
the pole on their shoulder,
and the rod of their taskmaster
you have smashed, as on the day of Midian.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 27:1, 4, 13-14

R\ The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?
The LORD is my life's refuge;
of whom should I be afraid? R

One thing I ask of the LORD;
this I seek:
To dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
That I may gaze on the loveliness of the LORD
and contemplate his temple. R

I believe that I shall see the bounty of the LORD
in the land of the living.
Wait for the LORD with courage;
be stouthearted, and wait for the LORD. R

Reading 2

1 Cor 1:10-13, 17

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
that all of you agree in what you say,
and that there be no divisions among you,
but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose.
For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers and sisters,
by Chloe's people, that there are rivalries among
you.

I mean that each of you is saying,
"I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos,"
or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."
Is Christ divided?
Was Paul crucified for you?
Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach
the gospel,
and not with the wisdom of human eloquence,
so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

Gospel

Mt 4:12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested,
he withdrew to Galilee.
He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum
by the sea,
in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,
that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet
might be fulfilled:

*Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,
the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light,
on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death
light has arisen.*

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say,
"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."
As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw
two brothers,
Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew,
casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen.
He said to them,
"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

At once they left their nets and followed him.
He walked along from there and saw two other brothers,
James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.
They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee,
mending their nets.
He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father
and followed him.
He went around all of Galilee,
teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom,
and curing every disease and illness among the people.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.*

Parishioners' financial support and food donations to our St. Hyacinth Conference of St. Vincent de Paul, allowed our Vincentian volunteers to help our friends-in-need in the Deer Park area for the months of September – December, 2022.

$4,229.05 was paid in rent, $6,199.65 in utilities, $364.90 in other bills, and $555.00 was given in gift cards. 51 boxes of food were distributed. 80 families were served in the 4 months.

Through your generous support of our Angel Tree Project, 75 children received your donated Christmas gifts and 24 families received bountifully filled food boxes and $30 HEB gift cards.

Thank you so much for your generosity.

"You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God." (2 Cor. 9:11)
