Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the Gospel reading for this week, Jesus says: I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved. In Jesus we have the new model of the true shepherd. Jesus fulfills the expectation of the Good Shepherd promised by God. Jesus goes to explain his role in our lives and the lives of all the faithful. He tells us that the shepherd enters through the gate to take care of the sheep, not to oppress them. The sheep recognize his authority and follows Him.

Voices all around us challenge what we believe. We see and hear endless things in the media telling us what we should desire, what matters first, matters most, and what should matter last. However, when we are called to listen to the voice of the shepherd, we will be able to distinguish what is right and what is wrong.

During the eight Sundays of Easter, the first readings are selected from the Acts of the Apostles and deal with the Easter Faith of the early Christian community. These selections from the Acts of the Apostles record how those first Christians received the spirit of Jesus and carried the mission of Christ forward.

For 2023, Cardinal Dinardo has assessed our parish DSF goal at $85,000. DSF supports more than 60 ministries and programs that serve the faithful of the Archdiocese and us here at St. Hyacinth. Go to <https://www.archgh.org/ways-to-give/diocesan-services-fund-dsf/donate-to-dsf/> to donate online.

Next, thank you for your support and patience as we move back towards recovery. We are working diligently to get our systems back on track at the Church. Hopefully, we will have our systems up and running in the next few weeks. If there is a need to contact anyone in the parish office, please email. Our email addresses are located on the Sthyacinth.org website. Please keep us in your prayers.

God Bless,
Fr. Reginald Samuels

Reading 1 Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed:
"Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles,
"What are we to do, my brothers?"
Peter said to them,
"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins;
and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call."
He testified with many other arguments, and was exhorting them,
"Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand persons were added that day.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 23: 1-3a, 3b4, 5, 6

R\ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul. R

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side.
With your rod and your staff that give me courage. R

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;

my cup overflows. . R

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come. R

Reading 2 1 Pt 2:20b-25

Beloved:
If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good,
this is a grace before God.
For to this you have been called,
because Christ also suffered for you,
leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps.
He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.

When he was insulted, he returned no insult;
when he suffered, he did not threaten;
instead, he handed himself over to the one who judges justly.
He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross,
so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness.
By his wounds you have been healed.
For you had gone astray like sheep,
but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Gospel Jn 10:1-10

Jesus said:
"Amen, amen, I say to you,
whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate
but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber.
But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.
The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.
When he has driven out all his own,
he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, (continued)

because they recognize his voice.
But they will not follow a stranger;
they will run away from him,
because they do not recognize the voice of strangers."
Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them.

So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you,
I am the gate for the sheep.
All who came before me are thieves and robbers,
but the sheep did not listen to them.
I am the gate.
Whoever enters through me will be saved,
and will come in and go out and find pasture.
A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy;
I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

Decade-A-Day for Vocations

Pray this prayer daily with a Decade of the Rosary for an increase in Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life

Loving and gracious God, Father of all, You bless your people in every time and season and provide for thier needs through your providential care.

Your Church is continually in need of Priests, Sisters and Brothers to offer themselves in the the service of the Gospel by lives of dedicated love.

Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in thier lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call.

May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said
"Speak Lord, for your servant is listening"

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer.
Amen.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
 Never permit me to be separated from you.
 Amen.*

Saint Joseph the Worker Prayer

O Glorious St. Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations, to work with gratitude and joy, in a spirit of penance for the remission of my sins, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God, to work with order, peace, moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from weariness and difficulties, to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, having death always before my eyes and the account that I must render of time lost, of talents wasted, of good omitted, of vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God. All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after thine example, O Patriarch St. Joseph. Such shall be my motto in life and in death.

Condolences to parishioner Cynthia Sosa and family on the recent passing of her husband, Ramiro Sosa, Jr.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen
