The Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time September 3, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

This week's reading from Matthew brings us to a crucial turning point in the gospel, where Jesus reveals his true mission as the Messiah and the cost of discipleship for his followers.

Jesus begins to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer, die and rise again. In the Gospel, Peter reacts strongly to Jesus' announcement and rebukes him, saying "God forbid it, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you!". Peter's response shows that he has a different understanding of what it means to be the Messiah, one that is based on human expectations and desires rather than divine realities. Peter wants a Messiah who will triumph over his enemies, not one who will suffer at their hands.

Peter could not see that God's plan was different and far greater than he could imagine. He was seeing from the human perspective rather than God's. We find it hard to break out of our human mental state to see our life from God's perspective. We are surrounded by a culture that is focused on itself which often denies God's purpose completely.

Like Peter, we are always hoping that Jesus will avoid the cross this time. We need to learn to die to our plans and ambitions, our dreams, and visions. We need to do this without trying to impose my agenda on Him.

Religious Education classes will be starting on September 10th and now is the time to start thinking about the upcoming religious Education school year. Registration is currently in progress. To register online for Faith Formation classes, go to:

<https://sthyacinth.org/faith-formation-registration-form>.

One of the principal goals of 2023 is to increase the number of people that are contributing to the Church through our electronic giving platform. We have over 1000 registered families here at STHY that maybe giving to our parish in the Sunday collection; however, we don't have a record of them using their envelopes or electronic giving. You can enroll for online giving through <https://www.sthyacinth.org/online-giving>.

For 2023, Cardinal DiNardo has assessed our parish DSF goal at $85,000. As of the writing for this bulletin we have collected $48,109. DSF supports more than 64 ministries and programs that serve the faithful of the Archdiocese and us here at St. Hyacinth. From Catholic chaplains at the hospitals and the Port of Houston, to religious education training for our teachers, to outreach to seniors, to youth ministry, to soup kitchens, to Catholic Charities ministry to the poor and disenfranchised, and to training for seminarians, deacons, and priests; the DSF provides funding for people and program that serve us all. Go to: <https://www.archgh.org/ways-to-give/diocesan-services-fund-dsf/donate-to-dsf/> and give to DSF 2023. Thank you for your generosity.

In celebration of our parish 58th anniversary, this year's parish project, the entire community of St Hyacinth is being asked to provide support for the renovation and restoration of the two main stain glass windows of the Church. To support this project, please go to <https://sthyacinth.org/stain-glass-renovation-project> to donate. We hope to raise $75,000 for the renovation and restoration of our Holy Spirit Window and Christ the Good Shepherd window. As of my writing for the bulletin, we have collected over $15,584 for the restoration of the stain glass window project. Thank you for your generosity.

Parish Update:

This week are continuing to lay plumbing and electrical for the new building and pouring concrete. The permitting process continues for the reconstruction of the religious education building. Construction should start on the new building in the next few weeks.

God Bless,
Fr. Reginald Samuels

Reading 1 Jer 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped;
you were too strong for me, and you triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter;
everyone mocks me.

Whenever I speak, I must cry out,
violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me
derision and reproach all the day.

I say to myself, I will not mention him,
I will speak in his name no more.
But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart,
imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

R\ My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts
like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water. R

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary
to see your power and your glory,
for your kindness is a greater good than life;
my lips shall glorify you. R

Thus will I bless you while I live;
lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.
As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul
be satisfied,
and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise
you. R

You are my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.

My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me. R

Reading 2 Rom 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies
of God,
to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.

Do not conform yourselves to this age
but be transformed by the renewal of your mind,
that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Gospel Mt 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples
that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes,
and be killed and on the third day be raised.
Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him,
"God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you."
He turned and said to Peter,
"Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me.
You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Then Jesus said to his disciples,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny
himself,
take up his cross, and follow me.
For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it,
but whoever loses his life for my sake will find
it.
What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world
and forfeit his life?
Or what can one give in exchange for his life?
For the Son of Man will come with his angels
in his Father's glory,
and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within your wounds conceal me.

Do not permit me to be parted from you.

From the evil foe protect me.

At the hour of my death call me.

And bid me come to you,

to praise you with all your saints

for ever and ever.

Amen.
