In today's gospel message, our Lord is asking each one of us to be a fearless apostle. We will be, if we live up to our religion at home and abroad. "Have no fear of men," He tells us, "don't mind what your fellowmen think of you, if you object to obscene language in your work-place. Don't fear what will be thought of you if you say your grace before and after meals in a public restaurant or hotel. Don't take that extra drink just because your companions at the party might ridicule your control ..."

"Note to any St. Charles families with potential new servers:

Our recent class of four new servers was trained and has begun serving for weekend masses at St. Charles. We're proud of each of these boys and girls and they're doing an awesome job: Amelia Beam, Brooklyn Wandstrat, Chase Meinders and Blake Meinders. We'll have a second training class for any other boys and girls who've received their First Communion and would like to learn how to serve. This class will be Sunday, July 23rd after 8:30am mass. The training will last 45 minutes and our middle school and high school servers will be assisting with the class again. Kids will get experience in choosing their robe, lighting the altar candles, carrying the crucifix, ringing the bells and helping Fr. Shaun during Mass. It's great to see our boys and girls participating in Mass and serving proudly. We look forward to seeing even more kids at the next class, July 23rd."
