What are we to take away from these readings?
Paul challenges us to recognize that accepting baptism frees us to share all that we are as Jesus did in giving his very body and blood for others. Contemplating Jesus' words about losing and saving our lives, we realize that he wants us to take this message with utmost seriousness. What Jesus says here anticipates the parable of the sheep and the goats (Matthew 25:31-46). It teaches that acts of Christian hospitality get turned inside out: The guest in need becomes a source of blessing for the host, and the needy visitor becomes prophetic by calling forth saving love. Host and guests are transformed into family servers: Our recent class of four new servers was trained and has begun serving for weekend masses at St. Charles. We're proud of each of these boys and girls and they're doing an awesome job: Amelia Beam, Brooklyn Wandstrat, Chase Meinders and Blake Meinders. We'll have a second training class for any other boys and girls who've received their First Communion and would like to learn how to serve. This class will be Sunday, July 23rd after 8:30am mass. The training will last 45 minutes and our middle school and high school servers will be assisting with the class again. Kids will get experience in choosing their robe, lighting the altar candles, carrying the crucifix, ringing the bells and helping Fr. Shaun during Mass. It's great to see our boys and girls participating in Mass and serving proudly. We look forward to seeing even more kids at the next class, July 23rd."
