In the gospel and in the first reading this Sunday, we are reminded that we have only one Father, God who is in heaven, and that on earth, we are all equally sisters and brothers, children on this one Father. Often, in our conversation, we refer to some among us as 'father.' This happens especially within family circles, where the male parent is invited to be 'father' in the same way as God is Father, guiding and instructing the members of his family with love.
